Holiday season opens November 3

The holiday season opens at Bend's Mirror Pond Gallery with the "Setting the Holiday Table" exhibit. A public reception for the show is scheduled for Friday, November 3 from 5:30 to 8 p.m. The show will be on display through December 4.

The seasonal exhibit showcases the works of a select group of Oregon's best fiber, glass, ceramic, metalwork and woodworking artists and designers. Their one-of-a-kind place settings, table lines and giftware will be complemented by merchandise from event sponsor Dansk. All works are available for immediate sale for holiday entertaining.

The exhibit was curated by Justyn Livingston, a designer association with such companies as Williams Sonoma, Pottery Barn and Esprit who now lives in the Sisters area. According to Central Oregon Art Association Executive Director Catherine

Voters must be registered

If you plan on voting on the upcoming Senate Election you need to register on or before November 14. Registration locations are at the Warm Springs Campus Post Office, and various booths within our community of Health, Brain Matters was developed by OMSI, Oregon Health Science University and the University of Oregon in partnership with local community groups throughout Oregon. Designed with colorful graphics and "hands on" displays, the purpose of the exhibit is to give visitors to the Center the opportunity to gain insight into the wonder of the brain and its importance in our lives. Brain Matters is constructed to allow all ages, from pre-school through adults, to interact with the components of the exhibit. Visitors will be able to see and touch brain models, explore how messages are sent through the brain and simulate the effects of alcohol and cocaine on the adult brain.

Brain Matters will be on display at the Wellness Center from November 13 through January 13, Brain Matters, a traveling exhibit 1996. All members of the community exhibit during regular Center hours.

Handgun fired

On October 31, 1995 at about 12:30 p.m. officers of the Madras fight involving several juveniles at the intersection of 8th and Buff in Madras. The investigation revealed that during the altercation one shot from a small caliber handgun was fired. No injuries were sustained from the gun shot however a pick up truck in the area of the fight was struck causing minor damage. It was reported that bats were also used in the altercation.

Minor injuries were sustained as a result of being struck by the bats. No medical attention was required. Three male juveniles were taken into custody. One of the suspects was transported to the Juvenile Detention Center in Bend. Charges with menacing, unlawful possession of a firearm and carrying a concealed weapon. The other two suspects were released to parents.

The incident does not appear to be gang related at this time. The investigation is continuing and additional arrests are anticipated.
