Buffaloes Win In Double OT Over Estacada Rangers

The Estacada Rangers came to town and give the Madras White Buffaloes a big scare, but the Buffaloes kept cool to win the Tri-Valley league game in double overtime, by the final score of 82-72, in a real thriller.

The Buffs trailed throughout most of the game as the fired up Estacada team kept the pressure on the Buffs. At times it looked like the Buffs would suffer a home floor loss.

Madras post man Scott Riddle helped the Buffs back in contention after he sat out the first quarter and most of the second quarter because of a couple of quick fouls called on him with-in a couple minutes of the game. But when he did return to the lineup things began to happen. Scott Riddle burned the nets for a total of 34 points for the night to top all scorers and got the Buffs rolling. Scott Riddle was doing almost everything good for the Buffs, getting the rebounds on both ends of the floor and blocking Estacada shots both under the basket and on the perimeter; TJ Foltz played a superb game with his quick moves driving toward the basket to score or pass off for an assist. Both Riddle and Foltz were the only two players in double figures for the Buffs as Foltz collected 15 points for the night.

At the end of the first quarter the Rangers held a 5 point lead over the Buffs and were hustling all over the place keeping the Buffs pretty well at bay. By the time the intermission came around the Buffaloes did get back in the ball game to let the Estacada know that they were still around but Estacada held the lead.

The Estacada team a very balanced team that could rotate five players at a time and each group played just as good a game as the other. They were all fired up and had the Buffaloes backed to the wall and wouldn't let them run loose. Each time the Buffs would get ahead one of the Estacada boys would come up with a three pointer to put them back in the lead again.

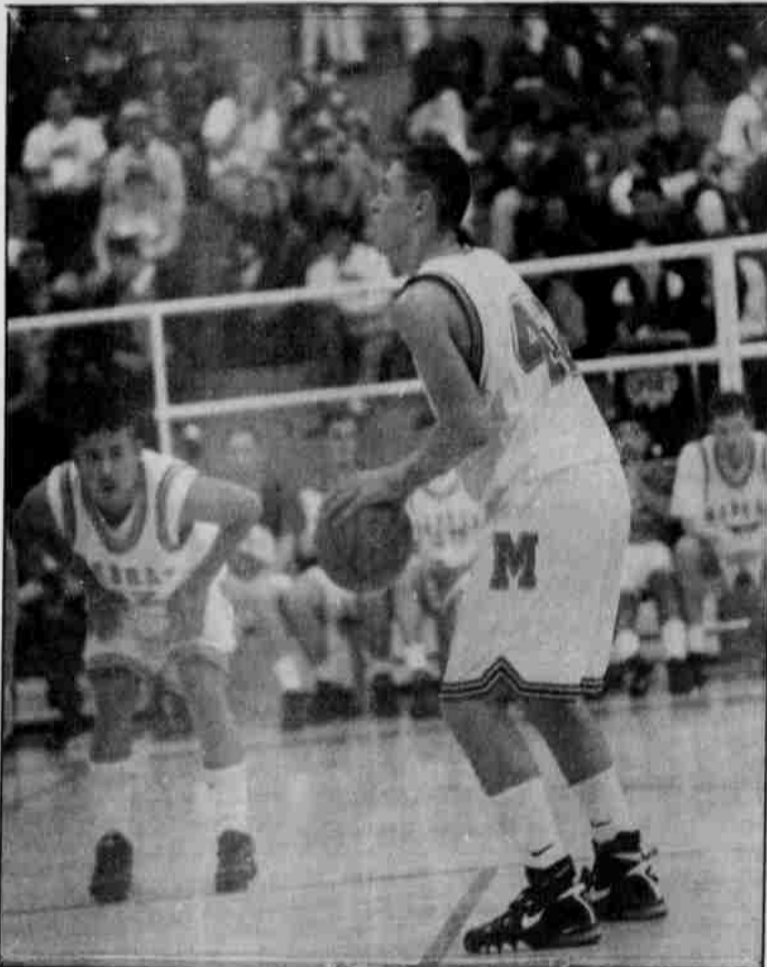

After three quarters the Buffs were finally in the lead 41-40, but the score see-sawed throughout the final quarter and finally ending up in the deadlock at 57 apiece as Foltz let a long shot fly just before the buzzer which hit the rim and bounced away.

In the first overtime period it looked like the Buffs might have things pretty well in hand but just before the buzzer sounded Estacada managed to tie the score again at 65 all. In the final OT both teams played very tough ball but the fouls caught up with the Rangers and even caused them to draw a big "T". The Buffs finally pulled away to a ten point win 82-72.

Scoring for the Buffs: Scott Riddle 34, TJ Foltz 15, Jon Gregg 8, Wes Barnes 8, Seth Johnson 6 Brian Miller 5, Michael Kirsch 4, Kevin Guiney 2, Cris Carpenter.

Estacada: Matt Adams 16, Matt Orth 15, Jon Greenup 10, Steve Faulkner 10, Jeared Chapman 8, Chad Scott 6, Mike Kleps 5, Dustin Sutherland 2, Jake Tolman, Andy Polozos, Brian Stearns.

The Buffs travel to Klamath Falls to play in a tourney and their first game will be against Mazama.

Scott Riddle at the charity stripe to collect one of his points during the game with the Estacada Rangers, as TJ Foltz, ready for possible rebound. Madras won the game in double overtime in a Real Barn Burner 82-72.

Buff Girls Tops Gladstone To Win League Opener

A road trip victory for the Lady Buffs gives them a 1-0, league standing in the Tri-Valley league. The girls started out fast and scoring rapidly to build a big lead over the larger Gladstone team.

Tara Lee Suppah had the hot hand in scoring for the Buffets as she drilled the nets for a total of 19 points to lead the madras attack. The Buff girls played a good defensive game even though they were the smaller team.

At the end of the first quarter the Madras girls led 19-5. The lady Gladiators couldn't seem to get anything to fall through the nets. In the second quarter Gladstone girls started to make a run at the Buffs who were holding their own and ahead of the host team. During the second quarter both teams scored 15 points apiece and as the half time rolled around the score was 34-20 in favor of the Buff girls. For the Gladiators it could have been the opening of league play jitters where they couldn't get started.

In the third quarter the Gladstone girls came to life a little to out score Madras by a 20 to 8 margin to bring the score to a two point ball game but the Madras girls held their slim lead. The Madras girls held their composure and played the rest of the game on an even basis with the Gladston girls.

The Buff girls played well enough to nip the Gladstone girls in the final quarter 16-14 to hold off the strong determined Gladstone team.

Besides Tara Lee Suppahs 19 points Annie Gregg scored 16, Erika Christensen 9, Cavender 6, Shasta Smith 4, K. Christensen 2, Nyara 2.

For Gladstone: Petry 21, Richards 13, Wick 9, T. Michaels 6, McCoy 4, Matheny 3, Marist, Woolridge, Mulberry, L. Michaels and Butler.

There were only two girls who bagged the three point shots and two came from Erika Christensen and one from Tara Lee Suppah.

The Henley Hornets Win the Madras Invitational tourney

Madras White Buffalo basketball, "As I See Um." Transforming from the oohs and ahhs! Of football, to the Rah, Rabs, of basketball gives the fans some good moments as both the boys and girls teams are making a pretty good start of the 95-96, basketball season.

To start off the season in the Madras invitational holiday tournament the boys done a 50-50 mark by winning one and losing one.

In the first game of the tournament the Buffaloes bopped the Eagle Point, a 4-A team by the score of 66-44, going away. The game could have been worse but substitutions kept the score down and almost all the boys got to see action in that game. There was a good showing by the local hoopsters in front of the home town crowd as they routed the Eagle Point team. Scott Riddle, a Jr. poured in a total of 32 points before he sat down for the night. Riddle was good on defense and had a super night scoring by turning in a total of 32 points for the night. TJ Foltz had himself quite a night keeping the opponents on their toes all evening long with his quick drives down the lane or around the sidelines and feeding off to players under the basket, or scoring as well himself.

Michael Kirsch led the Buff scoring with 12 points, Scott Riddle played a good defensive game but was bottled up on the offensive side of the game. TJ Foltz, with his crafty ball handling kept the defense hopping around as he made several key assists under the basket. Their bid in the final quarter fell short to give the Hornets the win and the championship for this years Madras Invitational Holiday basketball tournament.

Scott Riddle and TJ Foltz, along with Peoples and Waugh of Henley and Michaels of Eagle Point were chosen the All-Tournament players.

In the third quarter the Buffs were able to regain the lead in an exciting game where both teams played well where at times the game went on basket for basket, but when the final buzzer sounded to end the third quarter the Buffs were ahead 37-32.

In the final stanza the pesky Bowmen kept hanging around playing a hard game and were able to tie the score at 51 all at the end of regulation play.
