

About three-quarters of the Kah-Nee-Ta Golf Course was under water during Wednesday's downpour.

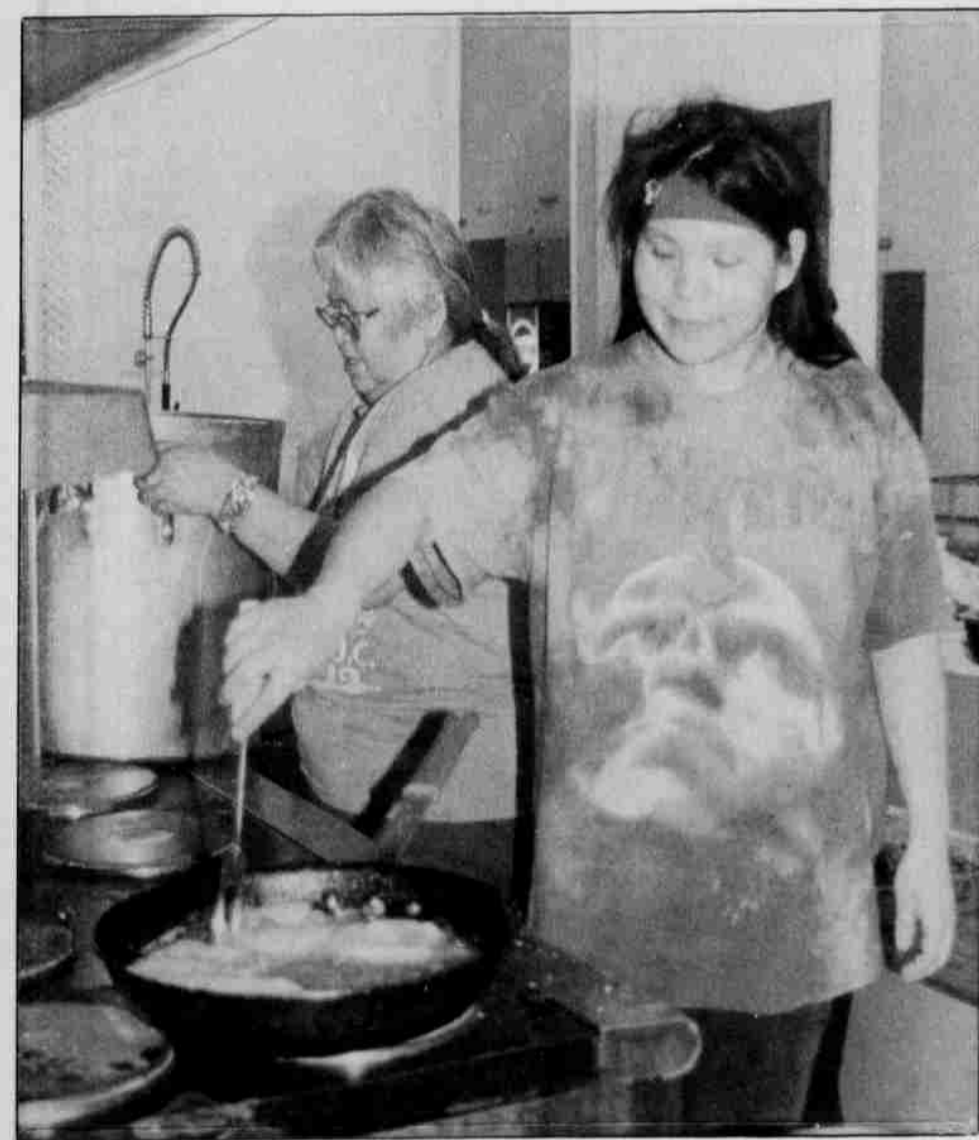

The river licks the bottom of the swings at Kah-Nee-Ta

The golf course bridge was broken by the current.

Highway 8 past Rattle Snake Springs was severely damaged.

Terri Saludo, front, and Nola Queahpama prepared meals at the Agency Longhouse for stranded residents and volunteers. The American Red Cross set up two shelters on the reservation.

Village patio was reflective after the high water.