Rick Trevino was a true crowd please during Collage festivities.

The third annual Collage of Culture was a huge success despite the cold and rain. Hundreds of visitors enjoyed a full complement of activities including music, arts, crafts and food.

Road work continues

The February flood has made some roads in Reservation forests impassable or rough to drive over. The recent rain has not helped in the effort to repair them. Some roads, which were closed by snow or blown down trees, have just recently been looked at and problem areas identified.

The combined efforts of BIA Branch of Roads, WSFPI, Tribal Construction and the Forestry Department are slowly taking care of the problems. The primary access routes and roads into active timber sales are being dealt with first (some temporary measures have been taken) to provide open access to the majority of the forested area. Work on secondary roads will be performed later as funding becomes available.

Housing Department says....

1. The Housing Department has suffered damage to three HUD units and a storage building in West Hills during the weekend of May 11 and 12. Each of these places had graffiti spray painted across the exterior walls. These units are part of the CIAP project that is trying to remodel and improve the living conditions of our community. The Housing Department would like to encourage anyone that has information on who our "painters" were to please contact the Housing Department at 553-3250 or the Warm Springs Police Department. HUD rules and regulations CFR part 950 (950.340) explicitly states that the housing lease will "Provide that any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other tenants, or any drug-related criminal activity on or near the premises, engaged in by an Indian housing tenant, any member of the tenant's household, or any guest or other person under the tenant's control, shall be cause for termination of tenancy."

2. Abandoned cars—We are getting close to moving vehicles. The cars in the Warm Springs Police department's impound yard are targeted to be removed first and then we will concentrate on those vehicles in and around the Housing rental units. It is the Housing Department's intention that this will be an ongoing project that will continually remove vehicles that pose a threat to the safety of our tenants.

Wallulatum: "Indian blood" needs clarification

Long-time Council member questions adoption issues; calls for clarification before another election

"There are a few questions I'd like to ask the people," says Wasco Chief Nelson Wallulatum. His questions concern Section 3 of Article III of the tribal Constitution and By-Laws. Adoptions are on his mind. The doctrine governing the Confederated Tribes was approved February 14, 1938. Just over two years later, Section 3 of Article III was amended. Tribal leaders apparently felt the original wording of the document was too vague. Following is Article III in its entirety.

Section 1. Membership person whose name appears on the allotment roll of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon, shall be entitled to membership in the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon: PROVIDED That the Tribal Council shall have authority, subject to approval of the Secretary of the Interior, within one year from the approval of this Constitution, to make corrections in said roll to the end that it may be an accurate record of the membership of the Tribe.

Section 2. MEMBERSHIP OF DESCENDANTS—(a) Every child of one-fourth or more Indian blood born heretofore or hereafter to any member of the Confederated Tribes who maintains a residence upon the Warm Springs Reservation at the time of such birth shall automatically be entitled to membership. (b) Children born heretofore or hereafter to a member or former member of any of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation may be adopted as provided in Section 3 of this Article, upon application by self, parent or guardian.
