The subjects and presenters were the following: One: Water, Rivers and Fish by Colleen Phagan. Two: Wetland Wonders by Arlene Boileau and Sue Ryan, 4H club. Three: Geology by Kathleen Heide, Oregon Department of Education. Four: Forestry by Mike Leecy, Greg Youngman and Andrea Gomez. Five: Salmon Storytelling by Wilfred and

WSNACOA meet each Wednesday

Warm Springs Native American Children of Alcoholics (WSNACOA) is a group who offers support to the Warm Springs community. Some members have attended NANACOA training and conferences where instruction was received about dealing with personal emotional trauma.

This group of people has worked together, not only to support and encourage each other's healing process, but also to enable members to attend the last National NANACOA conference in Spokane, Washington in November 1995.

Meetings are held each Wednesday in the Warm Springs Health & Wellness Center, Nutrition Conference room in Pod A, from 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Everyone is welcome! For further information, call one of the following WSNACOA Representatives: Charles Tailfeathers, 553-3336 (msg); Minnie Reddog 553-2460 (msg); Tracy Spencer 553-2461 (msg). All calls will be returned as soon as possible!

Currently we are beginning our plans to fund raise to send WSNACOA members to the 1996 National NANACOA Conference in Orlando, Florida, September 1996.

Employees receive awards for service

For the past twenty years, the Confederated Tribes Of Warm Springs have awarded employees for the number of years they've served. The first employee awards banquet was held at Kah-Nee-Ta Resort in 1976 where employees sometimes met for the first time and got to know one another. According to personnel compliance coordinator, Antoninette Pamperien, the awards continued at Kah-Nee-Ta Resort until February of 1982. It was a great event that a lot of employees looked forward to. The awards banquets at Kah-Nee-Ta were discontinued, as the Tribes had to find ways of cut back on expenses and at the same time continue to show employees their gratitude. Employee's were awarded with gold cuff links, tie tacs, necklaces, lockets, ID bracelet, money clips, rings, belt buckles, and combination knives. The expense was beginning to be too much for the Tribes, say's Antoninette, and many department supervisors would not even attend to present awards to their employees.

In 1983 through 1995 the awards were held at the Agency Longhouse in order to keep some of the costs down. In 1996 the Tribes decided to make it a department responsibility to award each employee.

On May 10 at the Confederated Room at Kah-Nee-Ta Resort, an awards luncheon was held for those under the umbrella of the Secretary-
