Tom finals-bound

Justin Tom, tribal member, son of Cheryl Tom and Lee Tom, has qualified for National High School Rodeo finals, held at Pueblo, Colorado July 15-18, 1996. Tom will be going as reserve Champions, along with his Team Roping partner Clint Hill from Merrill, Oregon. They will be leaving July 11, for the Rodeo.

Tom overcame an injury this year, as his right thumb was completely cut off and reattached, Tom was told he would not be able to rope for four to six months, but was back in six weeks. Upon returning Tom and Hill placed first in Union and Mollala, they also placed fourth in Ontario. They were in second place going into the State Rodeo Finals held June 10-12, 1996. With the top three teams 1/2 point from each other, from Saturdays show, Tom and Hill were in third place but a strong finish on Sunday gave them second place. This is Tom's fourth year going and his last, due to Tom graduating from Madras Senior High.

Smith joins elite basketball squad

Shasta Smith

Shasta Smith, daughter of Frank and Shirley Smith is going to Belgium, August 5-12, 1996, as a member of the 15 to 18 year-old girls basketball team. This squad consist of top players from around the Northwest. There are three teams going from the United States and this is the first year Oregon has a team playing in the European Games.

Shasta will be the only Native American Indian on the Northwest squad. The team was chosen by Sports Challenge, she was nominated by someone who had seen her play basketball at Madras High School. Shasta then went to Portland to meet selection committee, where they interviewed her. The committee then selected players whom they thought best represented the United States.

Shasta started playing at Warm Springs youth tournaments when she was eight years old and enjoys softball also but says basketball is her favorite sport. Smith is very excited about going to Belgium. When the team arrives in Belgium they will be going on a site seeing tour before they play any games. Shasta has expenses paid for but is fund raising for personal spending money. Information on fund raising will be posted later.

Camp participants tested their balance and coordination in drill.

Wings' goal is to reach Native youth and teach them about health, proper diet and the importance of exercise. Substance abuse prevention is also part of the curriculum. Over 2,000 Native youth have participated in Wings. College-aged Wings runners facilitate the camps.

Martha Poolaw, a Seminole from Oklahoma, camp coordinator, stated "Coordinating the activities at camps is challenging because of the age difference." Poolaw has alot of experience working with youth by being a special education teacher.

Gina Timberman, a Choctaw from Mustang, Oklahoma, is an English Literature graduate from Oklahoma State University, plans to attend law school at the University of Oklahoma in the fall this year. Timbermans strong academic background makes her a good role model. Gena started with Wings in 1990.

Chance Rush, Hidatsa/Sioux, a student at Oklahoma Baptist University, is majoring in Social work. Rush is a three-time NAIA All-American in track and field. Chance has been involved with Wings program since 1991. Rush stated "Working with Wings gives me an opportunity to send a message to youths about staying healthy and drug-free by running or any other sport."

Lenny Esson, Navajo, from Lupe, Arizona coaches basketball, cross-country and soccer. Esson stated, "He enjoys being involved in Wings for he has a chance to work with youths from different tribes across the states."

Recreation Director, Austin Greene, stated, "There was a good turn-out of youths with 50 or more at the camp." Sponsoring this camp was Warm Springs Recreation.

Wings of America held a Running and Fitness Camp, in Warm Springs June 25-28, 1996 at the Community Center.

Wings is a American Indian Youth development program of Earth Circle Foundation, based in Santa Fe, New Mexico and was established in 1988.
