Benefit to be held by Musuem

The Museum At Warm Springs staff is planning a Benefit Golf Tournament Saturday, September 28, 1996 at Kah-Nee-Ta Resort in Warm Springs.

Hole-in-one prizes include a 1997 Buick LeSabre, a new set of golf clubs, airline tickets, along with many more prizes. The hole-in-one prizes are sponsored by Ron McDonald Chevrolet Oldsmobile Pontiac Buick Inc. in Madras.

Tee off time is 9 a.m. with a shotgun start. The entry fee is $40 per player that includes green fees. The entry deadline is September 20, 1996. It will be a scramble format and teams or individuals can sign-up and can be paired off.

An awards dinner/silent auction will be held at Kah-Nee-Ta Resort starting at 6 p.m. with a no host bar followed by the awards dinner and silent auction from 7 to 9 p.m. The cost for the dinner is $30 per person.

All proceeds from the Benefit Tournament will help establish a maintenance reserve fund for The Museum's Maintenance program.

For more information call Willie Stacona or Dora Goudy at 553-3331.
