Thanks to the Museum staff

To the editor,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Ken and Jeannie for the great event that took place this last weekend at their home. I thoroughly enjoyed helping serve all the people that were there. I felt honored to have been one of the volunteers. Good luck to the Museum in the future. Thank you Beulah, Eraina, Dora, Michael and the rest of the Museum staff for your hard work in planning this event. God Bless you all. Oh, also thank you April and Liz for your precious time in coming here from Portland to prepare the meal. Hope to see you next time this takes place. Lee Saunders

Insecurity is lack of power

Hello from Pastor Rick. Let us talk about being insecure. It means not having a feeling of strength in your life. It means having a feeling of the ground moving under your feet. It means having a steady flow of fear coming into your life. Now you say what fear? A fear of not paying all the bills, not knowing if you have a place to sleep, not knowing about tomorrow. With insecurity comes anger. Angry about what is happening around you. Why is my support check late? Why did she get the job and not me? They said the car would run? Anger like fear comes in a steady flow into life. Finally insecurity brings indifference. It does not matter any more!!! What is the use of complaining about it? No one cares!!! At this point I am suppose to say God cares....But would you believe me?

Insecurity is the loss or lack of power in your life. It is the loss or lack of control in your life. The truth is we are not built to have all the power or control of our lives. We need people in our lives for love, friendship and companionship that keeps us from going crazy. Yet with people in our lifes comes the loss of power or control and a greater sense of insecurity. So what are we to do? Now I say to you God cares. If parts of our lifes must be given then why not given to the Lord...If you have a vision of the Creator as a loving, strong and wise God. Then why not feel a little insecure about life with the Lord in your life. Why not put the question of fear and anger, of power and control before God and let the Lord give to you a LARGE portion of security in a insecure world. See you in church.

Sweethearts of the Road-eo thank all

To the editor.

Just wanted to write and thank everyone for their support during our time of significant stress, short tempers, tough training schedule and chaos while getting ready for the Hood to Coast. We were entered in the Women's Open Division and our team name was "Sweethearts of the Road-eo." The roster consisted of the following ladies (and young ladies): Monica Leonard, Lyda Rhoan, Mary Stennfeld, Gladys Squiemphen, Nancy Seyler, Sheena Stevens, Elfreda Smith, Naomi Dick, Laurie Danzuka, Deborah Clark and Laura Cailloux. Unfortunately, they got stuck with running on the team, but it did save anyone from running a fourth (4) leg. That's how it goes, sometimes! As usual we were looking for runners at the last minute. We owe much gratitude and praise to Naomi Dick, Sheena Stevens and Elfreda Smith for pulling us out of deep trouble! We couldn't have done any of this without the commitment from these people, so thank you to all of our team members.

Of course, we couldn't do any of this without the assistance of certain organizations and or individuals. Big, big thank you to Warm Springs Forest Products and Indian Head Gaming Center for their support. Also, thank you to High Desert Beverage out of Bend, Oregon for the donation of Gatorade. Thank you to Earl & Rita Squiemphen and Terry & Gladys Squiemphen for the use of their vans. Thank you to any and all of the ladies that helped find runners throughout the months.

It's always a big responsibility trying to keep a group of people together throughout the year, and harder (for some reason) to keep a whole group of women runners together for a whole year. Even though we went through a lot of women runners, we were able to pull it off and I'm thankful for that.

I don't know how many women had training partners, but it helped some of our runners, so thank you those people that helped our runners!

It's always nice to know that I have recruited a group of people that want to reach a certain goal, it inspires the rest of the team. Thank you ladies for being the individuals you are!

This year, they increased the

1986 Ford Bronc II 4x4 (brown),

Hood to Coast and 450 teams for Portland to Coast. That's a lot of people! We were 1 of 3 teams from Warm Springs that were fortunate enough to have made it in this run. We certainly broke no records, but we had fun while doing it and finished it! This year, the heat got to a lot of runners, we were fortunate not to have any major problems. They did have a lot of runners throughout the run that suffered from dehydration and or heat exhaustion. We came close a couple of times, but were able to avoid any major problems.

Congratulations to the other teams that participated. Jerry Sampson's team completed the Hood to Coast in approximately 33 hours (Jerry, Sandra Greene, Joe Tuckta, Sylvia McCabe, Bobby and Sandra Jim, Tonya Selam, Willard, Lucas & Debbie Ike, Gerald Sampson and Jolene Boise). Good job! Vernon Squiemphen's team completed the Portland to Coast in approximately 17 hours (Vernon, Thurman, Phil & Terry Squiemphen, Tray Leonard, Michael Meninick, Evan Cochran, Raymond Anderson and Clifford Pamperien). Great job!

I appreciate any and all help that our team received and hope that the team members enjoyed themselves and brought home some good memories. Thank you from your team captain.

I, Lawrence Tufti, would like to apologize to Tribal Court and every individual on the Warm Springs Reservation-Driving under the influence of Intoxicants (alcohol) on the 15th & 16th day of August 1996; Endangering my life and jeopardizing the lives of my relatives and others!

Lawrence (Shmoo) Tufti WRA meeting Thursdays

"To strengthen women's roles and promote the development of a healthy and sustainable community," is the mission of the newly founded Women's Resource Association at Warm Springs.

Meetings are held on Thursdays varying locations.

The next meeting will be held eptember 26 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church. It will be a salad, bread and cheese potluck. October 10 will find the Association meeting at the Senior Citizen

Building from 6 to 8 p.m. with a potluck dinner. On October 24, the Association will meet at Marie Calica's residence. It will be a baked potato meal. Everyone is asked to a bring potato topping and drink. During the September 26 meeting, Association members will begin a personality survey project using the PREP System. The survey objective is to identify personality types through the testing tool expanding communication skills for professional and personal interaction with others. The PREP System is widely used in the professional marketplace to enhance individual and team performance. Once the members are surveyed, the group will participate in team building exercises by practicing new communication skills.
