Shamona Charley

She is seeking this title because she wants to meet new people, represent Warm Springs Tribe and inform people of our organization and enterprises.

She would like to encourage other younger people by letting them know she sells her tickets all by herself. "Don't be disappointed when people don't buy tickets." She also hopes to show the younger generation that there's not only alcohol and drugs out there. They can go out and accomplish something for themselves.

Blanche Mitchell, age 13, attends the Jefferson County Middle School in the 8th grade. She is the daughter of Eric and Kimiko Mitchell of Warm

Mame (Dr., Mr., Mrs., Ms., Miss:)

Huckleberry Basket ornaments for sale

Limited edition Huckleberry Basket pewter ornaments that can also be used as pins or pendants are available for sale at The Museum At Warm Springs Gift Shop or by mail.

"The basket mold is designed after a huckleberry basket in The Museum's collection," said Dora Goudy, Museum Development Officer. She said only 400 will be made including 200 ornaments and 200 with a pin clasp on the back.

Goudy said they would make great Christmas gifts and the cost is $45 each plus $3 for shipping and handling (if done by mail order.) The ornament/pins are packaged in a paper "Shaptàkai" or rawhide suitcase that is patterned after an artifact in The Museum's collection.

All funds raised from the sale of the ornaments will be used for general operating costs for The Museum. The ornament and Shaptàkai are designed by Jerry Werner
