Scott Riddle scores two during the Bob McKenzie Memorial tourney held December 6 and 7.

Buffs take first in Bob McKenzie Tourney

The Madras White Buffs boys varsity basketball team won the Bob McKenzie Memorial Tournament December 6-7, at the Buff dome.

Madras opened play against Eagle Point. The game was close until the fourth quarter when the Buffs pulled away. Outscoring Eagle Point 21-10 in the final quarter, Johnson lead the buffs in scoring with 16. Riddle and Klos each had 13, while Kirsch added 11. The win put Madras in the championship game along with Henley.

Madras took control early and coasted to an easy win. Beating Henley 74-60 in the championship game. The Buffs long range touch was on the Buffs hit 12 three pointers. Klos had five, enroute to 25 points and four steals. Riddle scored 16 and Miller added ten points plus seven assists. The Buffs had two players on the all tournament team, Riddle and Kirsch.

Girls beat Estacada 48-41

"As I sees U'm" The Madras White Buffalo girls basketball team came away with a win over a previously unbeaten Estacada Ranger girls team by the score of 48-41. The Rangers were 3-0 before coming into the game with the Buffs.

The girls went right to work getting the jump on the Estacada girls jumping out to a 10-4 first quarter lead. The steadily improving Buffs had some heads up play creating turn over's which were in their favor, being able to score. There were a lot of turn over's by both teams during the game but Madras managed to take advantage of all the breaks they could get. The Buff gals took a 24-12 half time lead playing a pressure game on the Rangers.

In the third quarter the Estacada Rangers settled down a bit to give the

Buffets a little tussle as they out scored Madras in the third quarter 14-9 to close the gap a little as the score board read 33-26 in favor of the Buffs

The Buff gals were doing what they should as Tara Lee Suppah and Katie Christensen and Annie Gregg were instrumental under the back boards pulling down rebounds. Kea Wyatt done a good job handling the ball until the second half of the game when she got into foul trouble and sat out the final quarter. The whole team worked well and Coach Peterson said he sees a whole lot of improvement in the girls since the opening game of the season.

Their next outing will be here in the Buffalo Dome on Friday night as they host the LaSalle Falcons, with game time at 7:30 p.m. J.v. girls game will get under way at 5:45 p.m.

Boys win one on road

The Madras White Buffaloes win on the road as they traveled to take on the Cascade Cougars , at Turner, Oregon, who are top contenders in the Capitol league. The outcome of the game the Buffs came out on top 71-66.

A sluggish game to say the least as the Buffs trailed at the end of the first quarter 13-14. The second quarter things didn't improve any and the Cougars out scored the Buffs again

22-20 to take a 36-33 half time lead. It wasn't until the final quarter when the Buffs finally got on track to over take the Cougar lead to pull the game out.

Scoring by Scottie Riddle and Brian Miller were outstanding. Riddle getting 21 and Miller contributed 16, unofficial scores.

They Travel to face the LaSalle Falcons on Friday night Dec. 20, on their home court. JV game time at 5:45 p.m.
