

Fourth Annual Children's Art Show draws many visitors

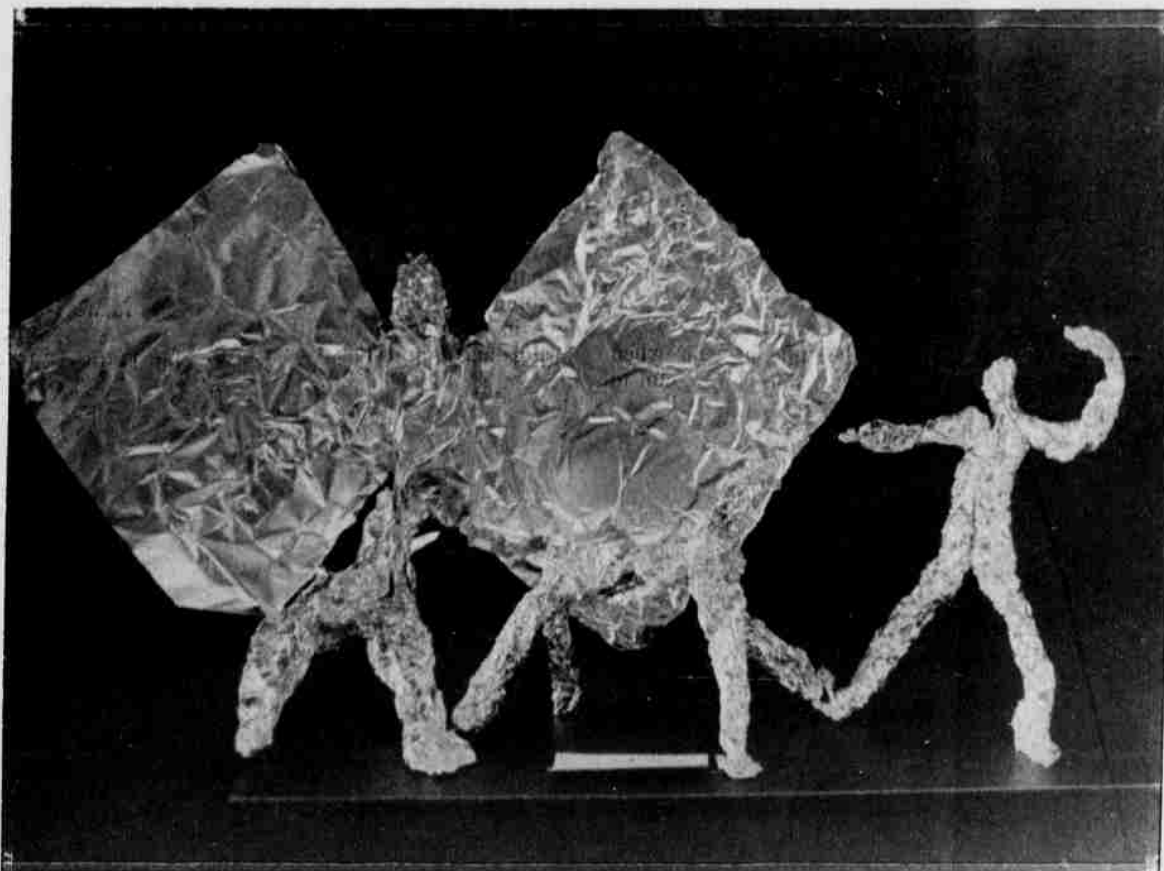

The 4th Annual Children's Art Show began March 13 and will continue until May 4, 1997 in the Changing Exhibits gallery. Children of all ages display their creativity and talents.

Visitors admire the Foil Sculptures made by Karen Adams' 2nd Grade students.

Clay Teddy Bear figure made by Stephanie Chavez of Jefferson County Middle School.

Foil sculpture, "Shaggy, Scooby & Bad Guy," made by Whitley Ruiz.

Basketry made by Nicole Charley, Tricia Charley and Sheilina Charley.

Quilt made with felt pieces made by ECE Kindergarten students.

Recycle Art Floral Arrangement made by Girl Scout Troop 800. Made with pipe cleaners, other recycled "garbage" material.
