Baseball skills

Diamond skills competition will be held on Saturday May 10, at the Warm Springs Community Center starting time is 3 p.m. and at the Madras High School at 12 p.m.

The contestants are judged on three different skills, throwing accuracy, running timed from second and hitting off a tee for distance.

The age groups are 7-8, 9-10, 11-12 and 13-14, for both boys' and girls. The winners will move on to Sectionals TBA at a later date. Regionals will be at a Seattle Mariners game and the finals at the 1997 All-Star game.

You may pick-up entry forms at the Community Center, Warm Springs Market and at Housing.

Eagle Spirits 6' & under won by Lapwai

The Eagle Spirits 6' and Under Men's basketball tournament was a "good success" according to tourney director Ricky Minthorn. "We had teams from Washington, California, Idaho and Oregon. It was good to see the talent from all over Indian country to come play."

The Lapwai team won first place, Pendleton went home with second place and Yakama took third place. Host team Eagle Spirits placed fourth.

Following is a game-by-game account:

Game one pitted Pendleton against Granger. The Pendleton team had eight players score in double figures, with Remo Smith pouring in 21 points for the winners. Granger was lead by Forrest Elie's 22 points.

Yakama Bucks played NW Chiefs with Yakama coming out on top by the score of 97-69. The games top scorer was Donnie Bagley, NW Chiefs, and for the winners was JoJo Mes'lie with 22.

The third game had Yakama going against host Eagle Spirits. The Spirits used the inside play of Shawn Shaw who scored 27 points to lead the Spirits to victory. Rick Price scored 18 for Yakama.

In a high scoring affair, game four, Lapwai out ran the Wapato team by the score of 105-93. Lapwai had five players with 17 or more points, with Bob Sabotta hitting 28. Glenn Jones had 22 for Wapato.

Game five the Scouts played Eagle Spirits. The Spirits ran away by the score of 102-38.

Game six pitted Seattle against Pendleton, with Pendleton winning by the count of 69-62. Remo Smith scored 21 for the winners.

Game seven Yakama defeated Sutherlin 95-61. John Takes No Enemy had 24 for Yakama. Derek Kimbol scored 22 for the losers.

Hoopa came up short in game eight against Lapwai in the next game losing 88-82. Wayne Nez had 31 for the losers, but Bob Sabotta poured in 34 and Jason Yurock added 25 points for Lapwai.

Game nine had NW Chiefs defeating Seattle by the score of 60-59. Seattle lead at half-time 40-28. In the second half the Chiefs came and out scored the Seattle team 32-19. Kanim Smith poured in 32 for Seattle, while Donnie Bagley scored 16 for the winners.

Southerlin played the Yakama Bears in the next game, 10, with Southerlin winning by the score of 73-63.

Hoopa played Granger in game 11. Hoopa came away with an 81-43 victory. Wayne Nez, Hoopa, scored a game high 25.

In game 12 Glenn Jones scored 36 to lead Wapato to victory over the Scouts of Warm Springs. The final score read Wapato 113, Scouts 52.

Game 13, first quarter-final game, Pendleton defeated Eagle Spirits 80-70, lead by James Scott's 27 and Remo Smith's 21. The Spirits were lead by Shawn Shaw's 19 points.

Yakama Bucks and Lapwai played the next quarter-final game, G-14, with Lapwai winning by the score of 85-74. Bob Sabotta had 27 points to lead four other players in double figures for Lapwai. Jon lead Yakama with a game high 27.

Warm Springs wins ladies 8-ball division

In Redmond, Oregon on April 24, the long exciting Redmond Pool League season ended. Twelve of Central Oregon's best teams participated in the event. The competition was fierce even though these Warm Springs gals lead throughout the season the championship was a nailbiter as it came down to the wire and the last game of the season.

Three evenly matched top teams vied for the title. After the suspenseful smoke cleared the Warm Springs gals representing Redmond American Legion #1 stool alone, on top.

They played their hearts out almost flawlessly under pressure and prevailed as undisputed pool champions of the Central Oregon High Desert area. While dethroning the former champs, 2nd place City Slickers #1 and 3rd place VFW #2 (Lillian Smith team).

This American Legion #1 Sobriety Team was originally formed by (arm injury) Rita "Patches" Marchand and featured team members: MVP, Selena Boise, "Rookie of the Year" Seegray, Peggy "Metolius Kid" McKinnis, Captain, Jeri Smith, Betty "Boop" Bagley and sixth man Mi-Mi "Hot Shot" Hairybull.

Congratulations champs. Great job. The team was happy to see good sportsmanship throughout the season.
