

Hundreds enjoy seventh annual Honor Seniors Day

This couple was honored for their 67 years of marriage.

Balloon stuffing was a favorite game, especially for Reggie Winishut.

Participants enjoyed "necking" with an orange between them.

The familiar pass-the-lifesaver-on-a-toothpick game was a challenge for all.

Seniors enjoyed passing a spoon attached to a string through their clothing.

Jazzy Wewa and partner tried to pass a between themselves.
