

Junior Rodeo a favorite on Mother's Day weekend

Break-away calf roping was won by Gordon Scott, Jr.

My mama told me there'd be days like this!

Jr. goat tying.

Horseless roping was popular among the peewee set.

Mutton Bustin' was won by Charlie Ann Hershman.

The first Jr. Rodeo held here in Warm Springs this year on May 10, 11, 1997, was quite a crowd pleaser and a big hit. The youngsters were right in there doing their thing in the event he or she was entered and participating in.

The two day affair drew several entries mainly local kids and from the neighboring town of Madras, Redmond, Prineville and The Dalles. Many would like to see another one again as they really enjoyed themselves.

The following is the results of the two day show.

The All-Around cowboy was:

Tony Green of Madras, OR.
Bradford Heath was runner-up

The top Hand for the Girls:

Sierra Ferguson, Madras
Kristen Tom, Runner-up
