2nd annual Fastpitch clinic draws over 50 youth.

A group photo of the youth and coaches at the Fastpitch clinic June 9 & 10, 1997.

A fastpitch clinic was sponsored by the Healthy Nations, was held June 9 and 10. The camp had 52 youth attend the clinic, with wellknow players from around the Northwest conducting hitting fielding and stretching lessons.

The clinic staff was Ken Billingsly, current Madras High Varsity Baseball coach, Ellen Tiger from L.A. Denise Banelly of Reno and Priscilla Jay of Phoenix.

Many of the local players helped out with the clinic. They were the following people: Don Bagley, Lynn Tanewasha, Denise White, Leslie Cochran, Snyder Lawrence, Luann Foltz.

Val Fuiava and Remona Tanewasha kept things running smoothly.

While at the clinic youth learned skills such as proper hitting, fielding and throwing techniques.

The participants were served lunch both days and had a barbecue at the end of the clinic on Tuesday.

Estie Made recieved a glove, donated by Elton Greeley, for her hard work at the clinic.
