

White Swan men and Yakama women win the Pi Ume Sha's Annual Men's & Women's Softball Tournament

1997 men's Pi Ume Sha Champion White Swan team picture

White Swan was the Men's winner and Yakama won the Women's division of the Pi Ume Sha 1997 All Indian Men's & Women's softball tournament, held June 28-29 at the Warm Springs ball fields. There were eight teams for both divisions.

The White Swan men played United Tribes in the championship game. White Swan used a strong hitting attack to beat the Tribes.

White Swan got two homers from Darren Only.

Third went to Hoopa team who got passed Yakama, who received fourth.

Chiloquin placed fifth and Siletz went home with 6th.

MVP went to Darren Only of White Swan. Best Infielder went to Don Bagley of United Tribes, with teammate Virgil Windyboy receiving the Best Outfielder award.

Following is the list for the Men's All-Stars:

Wes Crawford and Mike Lee from Hoopa. Cyril Jim and Johnson Leighton from United Tribes. Chico Aranda and Brian Saluskin of Yakama. Gary Frost of Chiloquin.

Willie Metcalf from Siletz. Adam Strom and Anthony Aranda from White Swan. Manny Wahlmet of Red Dawgs. Mike Leslie of Colville.

Women's tournament

The Yakama team had to beat the Hoopa team twice to win the first place trophy. Hoopa received 2nd after dropping two straight games to Yakama.

Third went to the team from Fort Hall and Fourth went to the Warm Springs Bravettes. Wapato received 5th and Siletz went home with the 6th place trophy.

Tracy Smiscon of Yakama earned MVP honors. Best Infielder went to Char O'rouke from Hoopa and Lynn Tanewasha was the winner of the Best Outfielder award.

Following is the list of All-Stars: Heather Kinley and Dale Washines of Yakama. Char O'rouke and Sherri O'rouke of Hoopa. From Fort Hall Pam Thompson and Annie Eschief. Ardis Smith and Lynn Tsanewasha of the Bravettes. Felicia Smiscon of the Wapato team. Tracy Melina of Siletz. Edna David of Chiloquin and Paula Brisbois of 4-Winds.

Cy Jim showing his pitching form during a men's game against White Swan

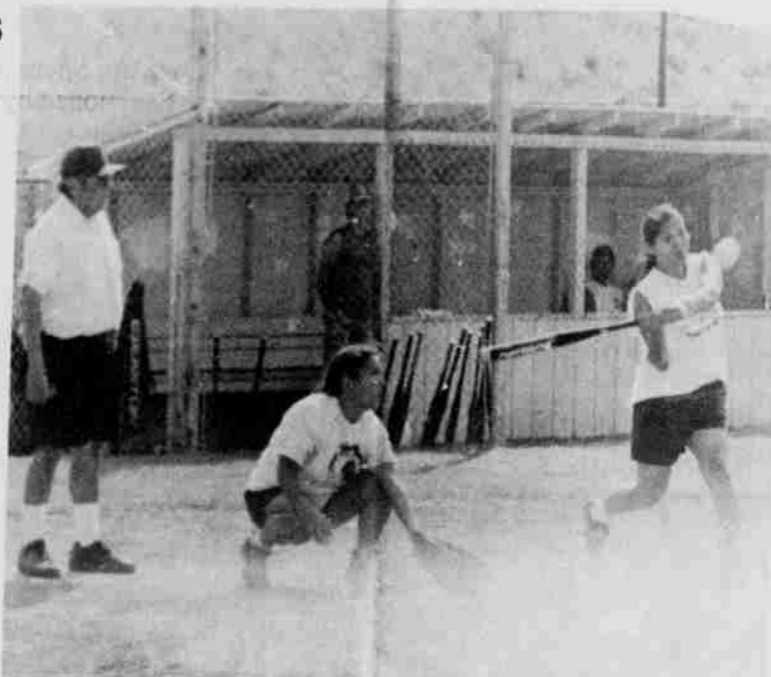

Yakama playing Fort Hall to get into the Championship

Annual Fry Bread Golf Tourney results

Here are the results from the 27 Annual Fry Bread Golf Tourney, held June 28&29. At the Kahneeta golf course, as reported by Joe Rauschenburg, PGA, director of Golf at the Kahneeta Resort.

A Flight: Gross
Place Name	Score	Golf club
1st Brian Malensky	144
Pumpkin Ridge
Tie Will Moschetti	150
Kahneeta
George Raimer	150
Pleasant Valley
3rd Charles Jackson	151
Kahneeta
A Flight: Net
1st Devin Lawrence	132
Creekside
2nd Chuck Schmidt	135
Kahneeta
Tie Bill Guzman	138
N/A
Terry Souza	138
Salem GC
B Flight: Gross
1st Willie Stacona	154
Kahneeta
2nd Helmut Sucher	157
Rock Creek
3rd Rod Farmer	165
Salem GC
4th Eiel Eilson	166
Bend GCC

B Flight: Net
1st	2nd	3rd
Cecil Saylor	Albert Comedown	Stan Kirk
130	134	139
Kahneeta
N/A
4th Duene Culp
140
N/A
C Flight: Gross
1st Ken Staggs
183
Coeurd' alene
2nd Gordon Cannon
188
Kahneeta
C Flight: Net
1st William Patt
142
Kahneeta
2nd Leslie Spino
149
Kahneeta
Tie Norman Ruiz
150
N/A
Justin Martin
150
Creekside
Ladies Division
Gross:
1st Shuana Queahpama
162
Kahneeta
2nd Cindy Eielson
189
Bend CC
Net
1st Garl Kirk
149
Salem CC
2nd Janeil Smith
151
Kahneeta

A Yakama player gets a base hit in the first championship game

The play's at second base

Co-ed softball touney planned

An adult co-ed softball tournament is planned in Pendleton July 4-6 as part of the Independence Day Celebration at Wildhorse Gaming Resort. Games will be played at McKay Community Park in Pendleton.

The tournament, limited to 16 teams, will be double elimination with a one-game championship. Entry fee is $200 per team.

Awards will include jackets and trophies for first and second place teams, T-shirts for third and fourth, a team sportsmanship bat bag, all-star T-shirts for men and women and bat bags for the MVP man and woman.

For more information, contact Brent Spencer at 541-276-3449; Kris or Paula Powaukee at 541-966-9830 or the Tribal Recreation Program at 541-278-5365.

Friendship Feast and Powwow scheduled for July 18-20

Bob Eaglestaff Memorial: Warriors Round Bustle Special
Boys 6-13 Fast & Fancy Special Sponsored by John Conner
Raffle Drawings Every Session

Friday, July 18

- 9:00 a.m. Open for Memorials
- 7:25 p.m. Whipman/Whipwoman Traditional Entry
- 7:30 p.m. GRAND ENTRY
- 8:00 p.m. Ceremonial/Contest Dancing
- 12:00 a.m. Retire Colors

Saturday, July 19

- 1:00 p.m. GRAND ENTRY
- 1:30 p.m. Ceremonial/Contest Dancing
- 5:00 p.m. Retire Colors
- 7:30 p.m. GRAND ENTRY
- 8:00 p.m. Ceremonial/Contest Dancing
- 12:00 a.m. Retire Colors

Sunday, July 20

- 9:00 a.m. Open for Religious Service
- 11:00 a.m. Friendship Feast
- 1:30 p.m. GRAND ENTRY
- 2:00 p.m. Ceremonial/Championship Contests
- 8:00 p.m. Retire Colors

Contest Categories

- Traditional Girls & Boys 7-11
- Traditional Girls & Boys 12-17
- Fancy Shawl - All ages
- Fast & Fancy - All ages
- Jungle Dress - All ages
- Grass Dance - All ages
- Traditional Women & Men 18-49
- Traditional Women & Men 50+

ALL DRUMS WELCOME AND PAID
—TEEPEE POLES AVAILABLE—RV & TENT CAMPING
—NO ALCOHOL OR DRUGS—CONCESSIONS WELCOME!
Contact: Wallowa County Chamber of Commerce
P.O. Box 366, Wallowa, OR 97885
1-800-585-4121 or (541) 426-4622

There were 20 to 25 youth, shown here, who participated in the golf classes at the Kahneeta resort. Golf pro Joe Rauschenburg was helped by Shuana Queahpama and Al Estimo.