

many visitors join participants for the three day festivities

Miss Jr. Pi-Ume-Sha, Tianna Herkshan rides in the parade.

Visitors participate with a grass dance during the 28th annual Pi-Ume-Sha parade

Two Feathers, Navajo airbrush artist and master silversmith, Sandy Sangster demonstrates his work during the Pi-Ume-Sha celebration

Two very little "Jingle" dancers pose for the camera.

Black Lodge singers were the host drum and winners of the Three-Hand drum contest.

Sam Starr hides the bones for the stick game competition. Eighteen teams vied for first place.

Johnny Queampts drumming for his team in the stick game contest.

Starr Stick Game Tournament results are:

- 1st place—Alice Sampson, Simnasho, Oregon, $2500
 - 2nd place—Bob McKay, California, $1500
 - 3rd place—Ed Edison, Washington $1000
 - 4th place—Charles Andy, Washington $500
- Eighteen teams from the Northwest competed for these prize awards.