The North American Indigenous Juvenile Girls basketball team won the Gold medals, but due to an oversight it was not reported in the last issue of the Spilyay. The team was made up of girls from Warm Springs and Chiloquin. The team members were: Tama Langnese, Farrell Lucei, Jennifer Parrish, Carley Page, Shasta Smith, Marie Kalama, Michon Brown and Wycooma Weiser, coach Jocelyn Moses and manager Frank Smith.

In the first part of the week Team Oregon played in a round robin tournament format. There were eight teams along with Team Oregon. The eight teams were: Saskatchewan, British Columbia, Minnesota, Oklahoma, Alberta, Ontario, Oregon and Manitoba. Team Oregon played seven games, winning six wins and losing only to Oklahoma. Then on Friday, August 8, the playoffs for the Gold begin.

In their first round match-up, the second seed Team Oregon played Ontario. Team Oregon got the running game going and ran away from Ontario by 47 points. Manager Smith stated "We waited to use our fullcourt press until the playoffs began and it really took the other teams by surprise. The other teams were taller than us and their ball handling skills were not that good. So when we pressed them we got a lot of easy baskets from the press."

With the win, Team Oregon moved onto the semifinals, where they faced a very tough team from Alberta. Team Oregon played its starting five all of the game and won by 20 points, 70-50 unofficial score. In round robin play, Team Oregon only defeated Alberta by six points and had to come from 16 points down to win that game.

In the Gold medal game Team Oregon faced Minnesota. In the championship game Team Oregon pressed the bigger team from Minnesota, which helped Team Oregon win by 21 points.

Smith stated, "There were no stars on our team this was a team effort and everyone played well. Our girls trained for six months, running, lifting weights and working on basic basketball. All the girls worked hard on passing, dribbling, screening and shooting skills. In the end that's what won it for ours was the hard work that the girls put forth. I was pleased in the team effort in which the players and parents did. In the twenty years that I've coached this was one of the best disciplined teams that I have ever coached. After we played Alberta both referees came over and stated that the Oregon team was deserving of the sportsmanship award because of the way the girls conducted themselves on the court." Smith concluded "I hope the Warm Springs community gets more team involved at the next Indigenous Games, like in
