In the third quarter Madras exploded for 28 points. Going into the fourth Madras had a 42-0 lead.

The game was delayed 40 minutes after Johnson hit a 20-yard to give Madras a 45-0 lead. The Madras players and coaches thought that the 45 point rule was in affect for the game, but the referees said that the game will continue. When play resumed, in the fourth quarter, Madras was hit with penalties for delay of game. So the Buffs had to kick-off from their own 10-yard yard line. This set up the Rangers only TD of the game a two-yard run. Estacada added two more points to make the score 45-8.

Madras defense closes in on Gladstone runner

The Madras White Buffaloes defeated the Gladstone Gladiators 35-6 on October 3, to improve it's Tri-Valley league record to 3-0 and 5-0 overall. Madras head coach Chip Deloretto stated, "Brian Miller, the Buffs' starting quarterback, made some big plays for us tonight, with his scrambling abilities."

The Gladstone Gladiators hurt themselves with five, first-half fumbles and Madras made them play on three occasions. The first was when Jarod Moses recovered a Gladiators fumble near mid-field. Miller then took over, first he scrambled 23 yards on a play which looked like he was going to be sacked for a loss. On the next play Miller ran a quarterback bootleg for a 17-yard touchdown. The first quarter ended with the scoreboard reading Madras 7, Gladstone 0.

In the second quarter the Buffs widened its lead to 21-0. At the start of the second the Gladiators quarterback looked as if he ran for a TD, but a clipping penalty brought the ball back to Madras' 31-yard line. On the next play Madras' Peter Johnson picked up a Gladstone fumble and ran it in from 11-yards out. Johnson added the point after the score to make the score 14-0. On the ensuing kickoff Gladstone could not handle the pigskin. Madras took over on the Gladiators 22-yard line. From there Keller Christensen rambled 31-yards to make the score 20-0. Johnson added his third extra point on the night making the score 21-0 with 8:59 left in the first half. Gladstone ran three plays then had to punt. Madras also was unable to move the ball and was forced to punt. Once again Gladstone couldn't find the handle, Madras recovered the ball on Gladstone's 22-yard line. Two plays later Miller made a great 21-yard TD pass to Jerold Rico to make the score 28-0, after Johnson made the extra point. At half time the score was 28-0 in favor of the Buffs.

In the third Madras wanted to put the game out of reach. Keller Christensen ran Madras' final score on the night a 12-yard TD. Johnson added the extra point and Madras lead 35-0. The visitors did not quit as they drove the ball to the Buffs 4 yard line, but the Buffs goal line defense stop the Gladiators at the 3-yard line. Madras ran the clock out to wend the third quarter.

In the fourth, with game out of reach Deloretto put most of the starters on the bench and let his second stringers finish the game. Gladstone put one good drive together and scored on a 1-yard TD run by Rodney Cook. The games final score was Madras 35, Gladstone 6.
