The Madras White Buffaloes kept their winning ways by beating Portland Christian 38-20 improving to 4-0 in Tri-Valley play and 6-0 overall.

Sophomore running back Keller Christensen lead the Buffaloes in scoring with his four rushing touchdowns. Madras coach Chip Deloretto stated "Christensen gave forth a great effort and our defense stepped it up in the first half. Portland Christian has a very good ball club and they never quit. Our next game will be a good test to see if we are ready to contend for the Tri-Valley league title."

In the first quarter both teams played strong defense. Madras started three times on their own 20-yard line. No team really threaten to score in the first quarter. Madras Jerold Rico intercepted a Josh Lemka pass and returned it 21-yards.

In start of the second quarter of play Portland Christian was called for a pass-interference which put the ball on Portland Christians 22-yard line. After a seven-yard gain Keller Christensen ran the ball in from 15-yards out to make the score 6-0 Madras. Peter Johnson made the score

7-0 when his extra-point kick went through the uprights. On Portland Christian next possession Madras' Jason Cordes came up with the Buffs second interception of the game, but on the next play the Royals got the ball back on a Lemka interception of Jake Jace pass. Portland Christian moved the ball down to the White Buffs 5-yard line, but the White Buffs defense made a stand and took over on downs when the Royals could not score on fourth down.

On the next series Christensen ran for 10 yards to move the ball out to the 25-yard line. Then Christensen broke loose for a 75-yard TD run. Johnson made the score 14-0 with 1:12 left in the first half. Madras got the ball back with less than a minute to play in the half Johnson made a 35-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to make the score 17-0 Madras.

In the third the Royals came out to show the Buffs they would not quit. A Josh Lemka TD pass to Cole Saban made the score 17-6, the point after was no good. Madras Rico returned the ensuing kickoff 30 yards. A 12 yard run by Madras QB Jake Jace gave Madras a 1st and 10 at the Royals 15-yard line. From there Christensen ran in for his third TD on the night. Johnson made the point after to give Madras a 24-6. Madras defense held the Royals on their next possession. Christensen had runs of 27-yards and 13-yards to put the ball on Portland Christians 6-yard line. Two plays later Christensen score his fourth TD of the night to give Madras a 30-6 lead. Johnson hit his fourth point after to make the score 31-6.

In the fourth quarter, the Royals started a come back with two TD passes from Lemka one a 5-yard toss to Saban, also the two point after, and the other a 15 toss to Doug Schneider. The score read Madras 31-20 with 3:51 left. The Royals tried a onside kick but failed and Madras had good position at mid-field to run the clock out. Christensen then broke a 37-yard run to give Madras a 1st down at the Royals 2-yard line. Shawn Wollin then ran it in from three yards out for to make it 37-20. Johnson made the final score 38-20.

Christensen rushed for 272 yards and four TD. Jake Jace and Shawn Wollin each had 19 yards on the ground. Wollin also had one TD. Jace passed for 31 yards.

The Third Annual Museum Benefit golf tournament held September 27, drew 72 golfers including former Governor Vic Atiyeh.

There were plenty of prizes to go around and the weather was excellent, which made a great day for a round of golf. Although no one won the car, which was the prize for a hole-in-one at the third hole, one lucky golfer hit the pin and left the ball about a foot and half away from the hole. Kim Ditmore walk away with a KP for her effort and won the prize of her choice from our great selection of prizes.

Following is the list of winners:

Other winners were as follows: Shauna Queahpama, KP on #1 and #10 holes. Kim Ditmore, KP on #3 hole. On #16 Keiki Rauschenburg recieved KP honors. Libby Chase was the long putt winner with her effort on the #9 hle. Tony Stacona was the mens winner with his putt on #18. The long drive winners were Kim Ditmore on #7, for the women, and Butch Miller, for the men on the #9 hole.

We would like to thank everyone who played in our tournament and to plan ahead for the next one which will be in May of 1998.
