

E Coosh EEWA: The way it is

SPILYAY SPEAKS

When I was in school I used to look forward to Veteran's Day because it was a day we didn't have to go to school. That's what it meant to me in them days, little did I know why the Country observed Veterans Day.

At one time it was called "Armistice Day," marking the end of World War I, and everybody took the day off. Even at the end of WWII, I never gave it much thought of why the Veterans were honored on Veteran Day because I never realized what the Veterans went through during a war. All the hardships, misery and suffering while serving the country. But when the country called all the young men were willing to go to fight for our freedom.

While serving the country in the combat zone in any war, when a soldier went out on patrol he never knew if he would return in one piece or even returned all with the rest of the patrol. When a battle took place it was like a big night mare facing the enemy wondering if his number was up, or if one of those bullets had his name on it or not. That is why so many veterans have those bad dreams when they returned from duty as they relive those horrible days over and over. Even today many veterans still have those bad dreams that linger in their minds from all that happened during their war days. People wonder why so many veterans have turned to the use of the bottle and drugs, they do this to try to forget all those things of the past and all those bad memories of losing friends and so many bad things that they saw during battle. Turned many to become homeless street people taking to the bottle and drugs trying to fight off all those bad memories. they experienced.

Today years after the Vietnam and Korean was people are trying to reach out to help the veterans because some veterans are too proud to ask for help but in order to ease their feelings they do what they do today and live in the streets. After the Vietnam War a lot of veterans went out into the mountains to live to get the feeling of serene.

After the end of W.W.II, North Korea invaded South Korea where the South Korean leaders asked the UN for assistance and the U.S. was the first to send help to help settle what was referred to as a little Police action, little did they know some of the bloodiest battles raged in that war. The Communist forces outnumbered the Americans 5-1 or more so you can imagine what it must have been like during those days of battle.

Those battle of Pork Chop Hill, Heart Break Ridge, Old Baldy, the siege of Changan Reservoir. The battle with the enemy and also the bitter cold winters of North Korea, which also took its toll on American boys from freezing to death.

Today during a period of peace in the world the younger set have no idea what the Veterans have gone through. Just like an article in a Veterans magazine, there was an article where a person had to explain to his son that there really was a war in Korea His son thought that it was just a comedy script written for a TV program, referring to the program called, "M.A.S.H." His son had no idea that the Americans were involved in a war in Korea. Of course the Korean War was the forgotten War until recently when President Clinton proclaimed July 27, 1995, as the Korean War Armistice day, marking the day the Korean war ended.

From the bitter cold hills of Korea to the sultry jungles of Vietnam where another type of war raged. In a country where the enemy blended in with the innocent where it was very difficult to distinguish the enemy from friendly people. It is very hard when you can't tell who is the enemy or friend.

But no matter where the war is fought you know very well it was tough, so today there is a good understanding why we honor the veterans on Veterans Day, remembering all those who gave the supreme sacrifice in time of battle. They will never be forgotten.

To the editor,

The families of Cato Teeman expresses their thanks and appreciation, to the Burns Paiute Tribal Council, Burns Paiute Farmland Enterprise, Burns Paiute Tribal Police, Nelson Teeman and Larry Richards for your assistance in securing and running the backhoe, all the grave diggers, the Tribal Community for your generous supports and gifts of food. Pastor Luttman and the Living Waters Church, of the gracious offer of shelter for our families and the church facilities, and leading our dear father's service. Thanks for the very special music and songs, it was more meaningful for all of us.

Special thanks to Phyllis

Harrington, Lillian Maynard, Doreen Zacarias, Bucki Holliday, Herb Hawley, Olivia Dick, Julie Tooke, Nora Teeman, and all who worked tirelessly in cooking, serving, cleaning and stepping in when needed. It is not possible to thank you all individually, you are all special to us and we thank you all for the kindness and respect you showed our father when he was with us. Cato Teeman taught us all a lesson in life, it's not what you have or own, it's how you live that is a measure of a man. He lived a life of simplicity and humility.

Our thanks, the families of:

I'll see you back where we met

To the editor,

To Sinte Hala Luta:
Thanks for the wonderful Birthday gift. Its been a long time in coming tho I did love you so. Now I can legally tell my story of what I know about the eagle feathers, rifle and beaded goods, etc. and where they went to.

I know I'll see you back where I met you. Full Circle. Back where you belong real soon. We didn't deserve to be treated like we were. Perhaps now we'll find peace, happiness and love.

Church needs fellowship

To the editor,

Hello from Pastor Rick. Once in while someone gets into my face with questions. Why don't you Christians get together more? Why does there have to be so many different churches? Why not become one church together and we can all be happy!!!! Well, my answer has two parts.

First is the biblical word Fellowship, in Greek it is pronounced (coin-na-nee-ya). It's meaning is to have a relationship that is a partnership, participation, social interaction, benefaction to each other, communion and distribution of gifts (gifts meaning mental, spiritual, and physical helps). To the Bible, fellowship is not a time of hanging out together for worship and then you go home. It is the time of becoming a part of each others lives. This is where we come to see our God. To know our God, and to know ourselves better. We see the Lord in the lives of others as well as in our own life. So when someone is upset that I am not coming to an event in the he community during a Bible Study night it is because of coin-na-nee-ya. I go to be with God.

Why different churches? In the Bible it talks about the body of Christ being many parts. It talks about the parts like the different parts of the human body. They are the hand. We are the elbow...the greatest destruction to the church always comes from within. When people burn down churches and hang the minister from a tree the body of Christ and grown from such events. When a church is divided about an issue the church begins to die. Coin-na-nee-ya dies. The church becomes a social center instead of a spiritual center. We have one Christ, one Bible, one baptism, one Spirit. When one part of the body is under attack another part of the body is growing. Satan will not take down the Christian Church as long as we have many parts.

We Christians are not trying to be a part from the community. We are not walking around with our nose up in the air. We are people who have discovered something wonderful about the Lord. That discovery is happening in Christ's church...see you in church. Sunday School at 10 a.m. Worship at 11 a.m. Youth at 3 p.m. Evening worship/study at 7 p.m. For more information call 553-1234=7.
