OSAA passes new rule on ejected players or coaches

Madras High school has a new rule that states that if a player or coach is ejected by an official. The athletic director of the school of the ejected player or coach and the commissioner of officials shall notify the OSAA by fax of the ejection by the next work day. Ejected coaches must leave the contest immediately and shall not be allowed further contact with the team members for the duration of that contest. It shall be the responsibility of the school to disallow the ejected player or coach from participating in the next scheduled contest. Should an ejected player or coach participate at the next scheduled contest, that action shall be considered use of an ineligible participant and shall result in forfeiture of that contest and other penalties as determined by the Board. Note this does not apply to basketball players whom have fouled out of a contest.

The appeal process: if in the opinion of the principal of the ejected coach/player, the ejection was based upon misapplication of a rule or rules by the official(s), the principal may appeal to the Executive Director within 48 hours of the ejection to set aside the next game suspension of the penalty. The Executive Director shall refuse to hear appeals of the judgment of an official. If the Executive Director hears and denies an appeal, that denial may be appealed to the Executive Board, which shall hear the appeal at its earliest convenience and issue a final ruling. Implementation of the next game suspension may be postponed during the time that an appeal is pending.

Play-For Fun basketball youth league looking for players

Teams are needed for a Play-For-Fun youth basketball league. Ages eight & under Co-Ed, 9-14 years old boys and girls.

I am also looking for help referees, people to help clean and maintain gym floors, and patrol the building. We are thinking of kids that don't get alot of playing time. We just want the kids to come to the gym and play for fun this is not a competitive activity!

If you are interested in getting involved or helping, or have any ideas, please give us a call at: 553-9030 Deanie or 553-8119 Reva or leave a message at 553-1831.

The 39th Annual All-Indian Men's Holiday Basketball Tournament is set for December 31 to January 1. At the Warm Springs Community Wellness Center.
