

Past year uneventful except for. . . .

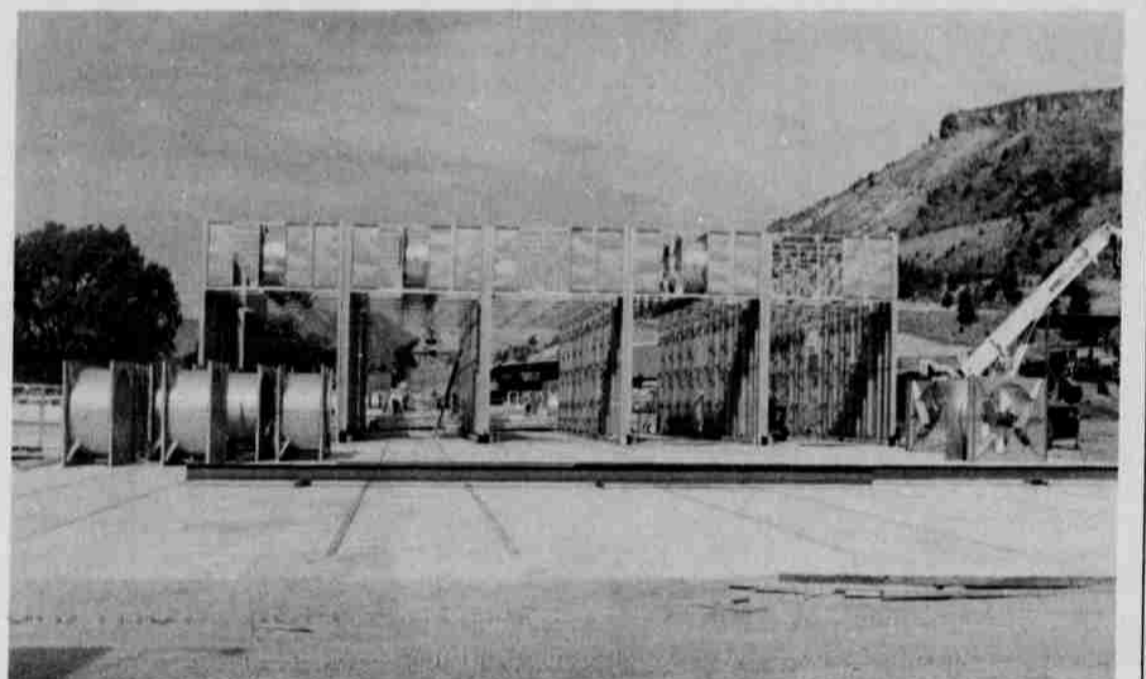

Vandals did thousands of dollars in damage to Language Program computers and related equipment.

Dancers participated in Pi-Urme-Sha parade.

Swimmers welcomed the opening of the Kah-Nee-Ta pool.

New kilns were installed at Warm Springs Forest Products Industries.

For the second consecutive year, disabled cars were crushed and hauled away.

Warm Springs Market almost became a drive-through.

A pilot narrowly escaped serious injury in a mid-winter plane crash.

Local dog owners participated in licensing program.