Madras Varsity girls fall to third place in Tri-Valley League standings

The Madras White Buffaloes girls varsity team split two games this past week. The Lady Buffs won against Valley Catholic 59-50, Saturday, January 24, and lost to league leading The Dalles lady Indians by the score of 46-39. The Buffs over-all record is now 13-3 and in Tri-Valley play 7-3. Madras is in third place.

In the first quarter Madras was within one point at the end of the first. Taralee Suppah was in a scoring duel with The Dalles lady Indians' Dorey Stockten. Stockten scored six first quarter and Suppah scored five. The score read 8-7 after one.

In the second quarter, Madras battle back and after a Marie Kalama three-pointer with 3:45 left in the quarter Madras was ahead 17-16. The Dalles then pulled ahead on a Stockten basket and at the end of the second quarter the score was 20-27 favoring of The Dalles. Suppah had 11 at half-time and Stockten 13.

In the third, Madras and the visiting Lady Indians scored nine points each. The end of the third the score was Madras 29, The Dalles 36. T.T. Supph gave Madras fans a scare when she got bumped in the eye.

Suppah sat out the last 13 seconds of the third and would not return until about six minutes remaining in the game. Each time Madras would close the gap a little Stockten would answer with a assist or a basket.

In the fourth, Madras would not get closer then six points and The Dalles took over first place in the Tri-Valley stands with a 39-48 win. Madras looked like they would make a run at the lead and were down 32-45 with 2:36 left. T. Suppah fouled out with 1:49 left and the score was 35-42. After that Madras could not buy a basket and started to put The Dalles on the foul line. Stockten and teammate Shelly Schultens each made two free-throws. The final score read The Dalles 48, Madras 39.

Scoring: Madras-T. Suppah 16, D. Suppah 4, H. Duff 4, K. Christensen 1, A. Gregg 6, and M. Kalama 8.

The Dalles-Stockten 23, J. Thomsen 4, M. Brock 4, A. Connon 2, T. Morris 3, S. Engles 4, and S. Schultens 8.

Madras will host Gladstone on Friday January 30, tip-off time 7:30. Then on February 3, they travel to Portland Christian.

Taralee Suppah, 25, scores two of her 16 as Deece Suppah, 23, and Kea Wyatt, 11, are getting ready for the rebound.

Buff Topple The Dalles to Win Three in A Row

"As I Seen It." The Madras White Buffaloes boy's basketball team took it right to The Dalles Indians, handing them a 76-64 defeat on their home court, Tuesday, January 27, 1998.

What happens when you leave the gate open, well someone forgot to close the gate on Jered Rico and Brien Miller as they went on a scoring spree, burning the nets for an un-official total of 23 points, apiece during the game. They both turned in a great performance for the night.

Brian Miller contributed 4 three pointers during the game as he was doing a good job from the three point range, to get the 23 points for the night and he was three of 4 at the free throw line and was tough on defense keeping the Indians off balance. T. J. Moschetti added 16 points for the Buffs as he was 8 of 10 at the free throw line and add four field goals. Jason Cordes had nine points with one three pointer two field goals and he was 2 for 2 at the foul line. Kyle Wyatt contributed a three pointer as he let it go just a half of second before the buzzer sounded to thrill the fans on that long shot, Peter Johnson had a field goal to round out the scoring for the Buff's for the night.

Clay Thomsen was high for The Dalles Indians with 13 points, Tyler Jones and Edson Buchanan each had 11 points, Jeff Downend 10.

Ryes Hodges 6, Jeff Murat 3, and Donovan Martin, Casey Hayes each had 2 points apiece.

In the opening quarter it was a see saw affair as each team went basket for basket until late in that quarter when the Buffs made a surge to out score Indians 23-13, and from that point on the Buffs never gave up the lead or were never in trouble of losing the lead, even though The Dalles hung around just waiting for a chance for something to open up for them.

The desperation by The Dalles Indians put them in foul trouble in the second half as they were going for the ball and done a lot of fouling and the Buffs capitalized on all those free shots as the Buffs hit 19 out of 22 from the free throw line for the night.

This pushes the Buff to a three game winning streak in their last three outings. Their next game will be in Gladstone as the Gladiators will host the high flying Buffaloes on Friday night Jan. 31, with game time at 7:30 p.m.

The next home encounter will be next Tuesday when they host the Portland Christian Valliants. In their first meeting earlier in the year the Valliants defeated the Buffs, so they will be on a payback mission when the Valleants invade Buffalo territory.

The Buffs will have to keep up their winning streak and keep the play-off in their sights as they soon will be here.

Madras JV girls record 13-0, after wins over Valley Catholic and The Dalles

The Madras Junior Varsity girls recently won two games, defeating Valley Catholic, January 24, by the score of 38-30 and The Dalles Lady Indians 51-17, on January 27. Madras' over-all record is 13-0 and 10-0 in Tri-Valley league play.

Valley Catholic
In the first period against Valley Catholic Cece Polk scored six of the Lady Buffs' eight points and Madras lead eight to zero.

In the second period the Buffs outscored Valley Catholic 18-7. Marie Kalama scored 12 points, four three-pointers, in the quarter. Kalama made four of Madras' six three-pointers. This was the turning point for Madras, for the rest of the game was a battle.

In the third Valley Catholic held Madras scoreless and scored three points to make the score 26-17 in Madras' favor.

In the final frame, Valley Catholic outscored Madras 13-12, but Madras had a big enough lead to hold on for the win. In the quarter Polk kept Madras ahead by scoring eight of Madras' 12 points.

Scoring for Madras was as follows:

Polk 16, Kalama 12, Blanche Mitchell four, and three other players scoring two points each.

The Dalles game
Madras started fast and never looked back and won 51-17. Madras was led by Cece Polk and Marie Kalama, as they scored 13 and 11 points respectively.

In the first, Madras jumped out to a 13-2 lead and were never in danger of being caught after that. Polk scored seven in the quarter.

In the second Madras held The Dalles to two points and lead at half-time 31-4. Kalama and Polk scored six points apiece, Kalama made two threes. Reina Estimo scored two and Emily Espenel scored four to round out the scoring for Madras in the first half.

In the third, Madras scored only five points while giving up 10, but still lead 36-14. Blanche Mitchell scored all five points, the last three on a last second three-pointer at the end of the third.

In the final quarter Madras used strong defense to get easy baskets and scored 15 points in the quarter.

Madras had five players score in the final frame. They were Nicky Johnson and Rachel Gleason who score four points apiece. Mitchell had two and Kalama five.

For the game Madras made five threes with Kalama hitting three, Mitchell and Polk one each.

Scoring: Polk 13, Mitchell nine, Johnson six, Gleason four, Estimo four, Espenel four and Kalama 11.

Madras JV coach Mike Osborne had this to say about how he thinks the season is going. Osborne stated, "We are coming together as a team and we must play together as a team the next six. We have a real good nucleus with Cece Polk doing alot of the scoring for us. The two that I think have really done most of the dirty work, setting screens, getting rebounds and put aside scoring is Reina Estimo and Emily Espenel, while Marie Kalama is a great spark off the bench." Osborne concluded, "We just are really team oriented and that's what helps us be a good team. Also these girls are easy to coach because they are willing to learn and listen."

Madras will host Gladstone on Friday January 30, at the Buff Dome,
