

March 12, 1998
VOL 23 NO. 6

35¢

OR. COLL.
E
75
.568
v. 23
no. 6
March 12,
1998

Spilyay Tymoo

(Coyote News)

P.O. Box 870
Warm Springs, OR 97761
Address Correction Requested

U.S. Postage
Bulk Rate Permit No. 2
Warm Springs, OR 97761

SERIALS DEPT.
KNIGHT LIBRARY
1299 UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
EUGENE, OR 97403

Coyote News In Brief

New salon opens at Plaza

Longtime hairdresser Marcia Simtustus recently opened her own "dream" shop.

2

Spilyay l'nawa mish'kaau

Question: What would make a good Tribal Council representative?

2

Poison Prevention Week coming up

Work with your children in cleaning out cupboards and medicine cabinets.

2

Spa Wanapine offers many amenities

The latest addition to Kah-Nee-Ta Village is a first-rate spa that includes a gift shop, snack bar, exercise facilities and more.

3

Employees polled

Kah-Nee-Ta and Casino employees recently participated in a community meeting on the Comprehensive Plan Update.

5

Language Lessons

Sahaptin and Paiute language lessons are offered.

6 and 7

Planning process underway

Land use and protection go hand-in-hand when preparing for the future.

8

SMART readers recognized

Charlotte Shike and members of the Salmon Corps are reading to students at WSE.

9

Boys, girls basketball teams make it to State

The Madras High School basketball teams earned their way to State.

10

Spring Revival
Featuring Tom Claus
March 22-27, 1998
7 p.m. nightly
WS Baptist Church
Childcare available

Deadline for the next regular Spilyay Tymoo is Friday,
March 20, 1998

Ribbon cutting to open Spa Wanapine was done by Chief Delvis Heath, Sr., elder Bernice Mitchell, Carina Miller, Colletta Macy and Larry Switzler.

Tribal voters approve senior citizen assisted living center

Tribal voters, on Wednesday, March 4, approved the proposed Senior Citizen Assisted Living Center. Of the 717 ballots cast, 645 were yes, 69 were no and three were spoiled. The approved referendum authorizes the expenditure of $3 million in self-determination funds for the $4.1 million facility.

The Center will be built near the Senior Citizen Center. The plans for the 40,800-square-foot building include 10 units for short-term stays and convalescence, 12 one-bedroom units and 18 two-bedroom units. The Center will provide services to assist elders in their daily living needs, such as housing, meals, transportation, day care and medical support. Other services will include convalescence, kidney dialysis and hospice care.

Construction of the Center is expected to be completed by early next year.

509-J budget to be discussed

A school district 509-J budgeting workshop will be held tonight, Thursday, March 12 at 7 p.m. at 445 SE Buff Street in Madras. The public is invited to learn about the budget gathering process and budget document. If you have a disability, call Gail Stone at 475-6192 about special arrangement. Budget committee deliberations will begin March 16.

On Monday, March 16, at 7:30 p.m., Jefferson County School District 509-J will hold the first public Budget Committee meeting for the purpose of receiving the Budget Message and Proposed Budget Document for fiscal year 1998-99. The meeting will be held in rooms 12-A and 12-B At Madras High School. The public is welcome and encouraged to attend. Copies of the proposed document will be available at the meeting.

For further information, call the district office at 475-6192.

Districts nominate Council candidates

March 2, 3 and 5 were busy nights in Warm Springs. Tribal members gathered at their respective longhouses to nominate Tribal Council candidates.

The Seekseequa District members met March 2 for nominations. Nominated were Lee Tom, Theron Johnson, Joe Moses, Brenda Scott, Delford Johnson, Myra Johnson and Jazzy Wewa. Scott was not present for the nominations, but Chief Vernon Henry accepted the nomination. Scott has not indicated what she plans to do.

On Tuesday, March 3, the Agency District members met. Nominated were Zane Jackson, Jeff Sanders, Sr., Daisy Ike, Mark Jackson, Garland Brunoe, Norma Smith, George Clements, Sr., Nathan Jim, Ramona Tanewasha and Bernice Mitchell. Tanewasha accepted her nomination by letter, but rules set before the meeting began, disallowed absentee nominees. Tanewasha later withdrew her name from the nomination list.

Simnasho District members met Thursday, March 5. Nominated were Earl Squiemphen, Sal Sahme, Gerald Danzuka, Stanley Simtustus, Sr., Ray Calica, Levi Keo, Oswald Tias, Ron Suppah, Marvin Meanus, Sr., Evans Spino, JP Patt, Roger Stwyer, Evaline Patt, Jacob Frank, Ray Moody and Kathleen Heath. Levi Keo was not present for the nomination and was not accepted as a nominee.

Tribal Council, on Monday, March 9, confirmed the results of the nominations.

Spilyay will produce a special edition March 20 that will feature the statements of the candidates. The candidates have until this Friday, March 13 to provide Spilyay with their information. KWSO will provide air-time for the candidates. Contact the radio station at 553-1968 for further information.

The election will be held Tuesday, March 31. There are currently 1,981 qualified voters among the 3,801 members of the Tribe. Swearing-in ceremonies will be held Monday, May 4.

Family conference set

Vanishing the Anger, Strengthening the Family

A conference to strengthen and honor the wisdom of families, and bring awareness to the violence victimization, the need for healing in communities.

Guest speakers:
Howard Rainer, Sharon Clanchishiliage Development Consultants.

April 5 through 7, at the Kah-Nee-Ta Resort. Phone # 1-800-553-4SUN.

The cost is $50.00 for each participant, if received by March 31. This fee includes lunch two days of the conference. If received after the deadline (or at the site) lunch will not be included, at the same price.

A special High School rate has been arranged in the amount of $10.00 per student. Madras High School will offer a $40.00 scholarship to off-set the $50.00 fee for students who sign up early. Number limited.

For more information call (541) 553-3357, Warm Springs Victim's of Crime Office.

Council Candidate Forums

Saturday, March 21, 1998

Community Center Social Hall

6:45 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Tuesday, March 24, 1998

Simnasho Longhouse

6:45 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Come meet your Tribal Council candidates

Refreshments will be served

Sponsored by: Women's Resource Association at Warm Springs

University of Oregon Library
Received on: 03-19-98
Spilyay tymoo.