Summer Fun designed to keep kids busy

Are the kids begging for something to do this summer already? Are they bored, irritable and just plain acting lazy? Well, the Warm Springs Summer Recreation department has just the answer. Get the kids signed up and it's a sure bet they won't be bored.

Summer recreation staff coordinator Laura Sahme, sports/athletic coordinator and the rest of the staff including Carol Allison, Lucinda Green, Lovie Ike and Covey Colwash are ready to keep the kids busy and off the streets this summer.

Rules and regulations go with any organized activities and the Summer Recreation Program is no different. Kids at the Community Center that choose not to participate in the program will not be supervised. Daily activities are for kids six years and older, unless otherwise stated.

Kids that come to the Summer Recreation Program and decide to walk to the store will not be supervised. Kids are encouraged to call their parents to obtain permission to leave the building. Activities are conducted by the Community Wellness Center/Recreation Department staff and youth development workers. The Summer Recreation activities began Monday, June 15 and will continue until Friday, August 7.

All Summer Recreation participants must have a signed consent waiver, available at the Center of-Office. Office hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

All children 18 years of age and under participating in the Summer Food Service Lunch Program will be served lunch in the Social Hall during the noon hour Mondays through Thursdays. The lunch program is offered free of charge to all children ages 0-18 only. No outside food or drinks are allowed in the Social Hall during this time.

If you are interested in getting your kids involved in the Summer Recreation Program, call the Center at 553-3243 or 553-3244. The Center also has copies of the many activities planned for this summer.
