It's rough being a rodeo clown when animals don't do as they are told.

Ladies Barrel Racing was a big success.

Association attributes rodeo's success to donations made by many

The success of any activity always depends on the generous donation of time and money by a company, an individual or group of individuals. We can attribute the success of the 1998 Pi-Ume-Sha Rodeo to all of the above. We decided to try a dual-sanction this year (sanctioned by Western States Indian Rodeo Association and United Indian Rodeo Association), hoping to draw more cowboys and cowgirls and hopefully, more spectators.

The following companies donated to that success:

The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, Kah-Nee-Ta, Warm Springs Forest Products, Eagle Head Sports, Utilities Department, Work Experience, Beautification Crew, Fire and Safety, Fire Management, and Warm Springs Police Department.

The following individuals also donated to that success:

Terry Squiemphen, Gladys Squiemphen, Thurman Squiemphen, Donetta Burns, Wayne Miller, Marcia Simtustus, Marita Johnson, Laura Cailloux, Martha Alvarez, Tony Flammond, Gordon Scott, Buzzy Scott, Anna Flammond, Jonathan Smith, Lyda Rhoan, Desiree Flammond, Candace Miller, Chelsea Hudson, Jordan Patt, Jamie Flammond, and Clint Bruisedhead.

And the following group of individuals comprises the Warm Springs Rodeo Association that gave everything they had to make the rodeo a success:

President Ginger Smith, Vice-President Jr. Smith, Secretary Monica Leonard, Treasurer Val Squiemphen, Advisor Evaline Patt, Public Relations Vesta Miller, Members John Mitchel, Earl Squiemphen, Rita Squiemphen, Shawna Jackson, Terry Tom, and Kimma Flammond.

We ended up short-handed come rodeo time, so some of those people listed, picked up the slack without complaining and worked hard to make things work for the rodeo. We really appreciated their hard work and dedication. Next year, hopefully, we'll get more people to lend a helping hand. We certainly could not have made this rodeo the success it was without the help of all of these fine individuals and great sponsors!

Of course, we could not have done any of this without the rodeo personnel.

We'd like to thank the following: B Bar D Contractors (Buster Bain), Jake Grossmiller, Tim Childress, Bud Alexander, Rita Squiemphen, Marilyn Alps, Evaline Patt, and Ned Hurtado.

Thank you everyone. If I have inadvertently left someone's name off the list, please forgive me. We do appreciate EVERYONE'S help. You know who you are! We hope everyone can join us next year and make our 25th Annual Rodeo a bigger and better one!
