

Quilters turn fabric into beautiful patchwork creations

Local quilters displayed their talent in the "Quilts, Quilts, Quilts" show currently residing in the Changing Exhibit Gallery at The Museum At Warm Springs. The third annual show, featuring more than 30 pieces, will be on display until September.

"Rabbit shares her quiet Prayers, her silent songs, and her gentle spirit."

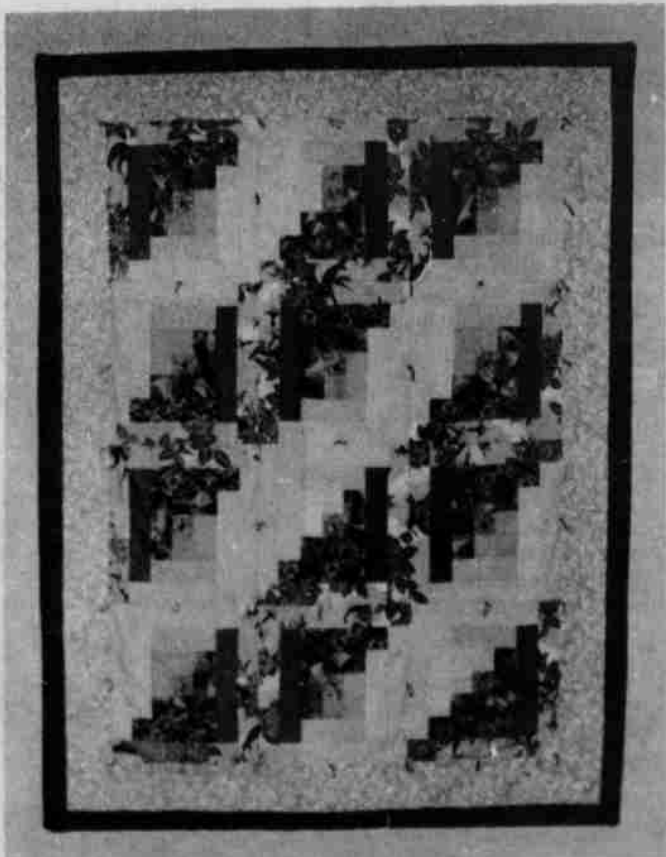

Satin Star Quilt hangs as a beautiful background for the Double Wedding Ring Quilt.

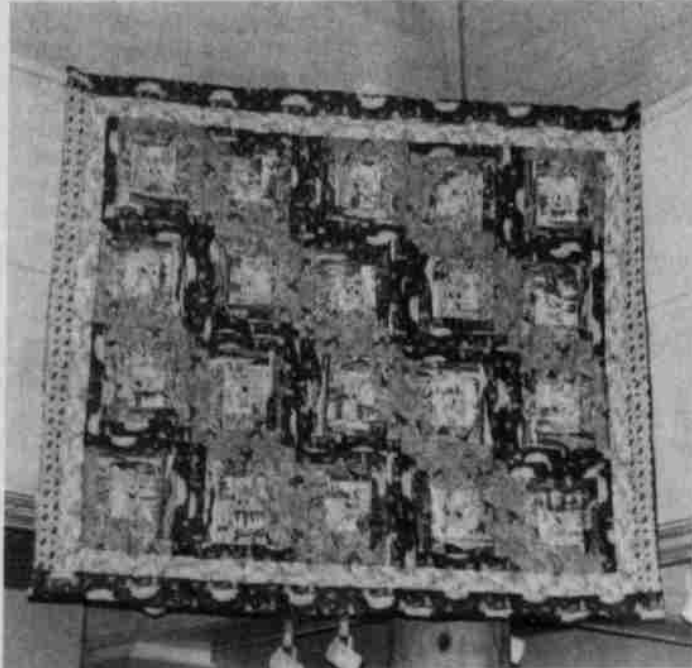

Discussing the quilt show and sharing quilting stories.

The "Card Trick" is the name of this quilt being viewed by Benson Heath.

Log Cabin made with florals and solids.

"Fields and Furrows" made with a Western Print.