Tips for Small Business & Social Security

Small Business Administration

A number of SBA programs are designed to help small businesses, including businesses owned or operated by veterans. Help available from the SBA includes business training, conferences, counseling, surety bonding, government procurement and financial management assistance. SBA loans are made under its Loan Guaranty Program. The loan amount is advanced by the bank or other lending institution, with SBA guaranteeing up to 85 percent of the total amount. In each SBA field office a veterans affairs officer is designated as the contact person to assist veterans. Information about SBA's programs is provided at field offices. Check the local phone book for the nearest SBA office or call 1-800-827-5722.

and dependents if the veteran has earned enough work credits under the program. Upon the veteran's death, a one-time payment of $255 also may be made to the veteran's spouse or child. In addition, a veteran may qualify at age 65 for Medicare's hospital insurance and medical insurance. Medicare protection also is available to people who have received Social Security disability benefits for 24 months, and to insured people and their dependents who need dialysis or kidney transplants.

Active duty or active duty for training in the U.S. uniformed services has counted toward Social Security since January 1957. Since Jan. 1, 1988, work as a member of the Armed Forces Reserve components while on inactive duty for training also counts toward Social Security. Servicemembers and veterans receive an extra $300 credit for each quarter in which they received any basic pay for active duty or active duty for training after 1956 and before 1978. After 1977, a credit of $100 is granted for each $300 of reported wages up to a maximum credit of $1,200. No additional Social Security taxes are withheld from pay for these extra credits. Also, noncontributory Social Security credits of $160 a month may be granted to veterans who served after Sept. 15, 1940, and before 1957, including attendance at service academies. Further information about Social Security credits and benefits is available from Social Security offices or by calling 1-800-772-1213.

Supplemental Security Income

For those age 65 or older and those who are blind or otherwise disabled, Supplemental Security Income (SSI) may be provided, if they have little or no income or resources. States may supplement the federal payments to eligible persons and may disregard additional income. Although VA compensation and pension benefits are counted. Also, not all resources count in determining eligibility. For example, a person's home and the land it is on do not count, regardless of value. Personal effects, household goods, automobiles and life insurance may not count, depending upon their value. Information and assistance in making application for these payments may be obtained at any Social Security office or by calling 1-800-772-1213.

younger brother to sniper fire in March of 1971, while he was serving in Vietnam. Gene and Karolyn both speak from the heart on issues of Post Traumatic Stress and some personal traumas in their lives.

Del Wantland: Del is the Director of Point Man International Ministries. He and his wife Sue and children live in Sheridan, Michigan. While serving with the 1st Cavalry Division in Vietnam and walking third in "the stick," he was wounded. Since that time, he has been in a wheel chair, but does not let that get in his way. He has struggled with many of the same issues other vets have had to work through anger, bitterness and unforgiveness, depression, addictions but he made some deliberate choices in his life which have brought him healing and freedom. His smile will brighten your day and give you a hope

Paul Huges: Paul's story is an account that will certainly contribute to the healing and recovery needed in the aftermath of war. His is a testimony to how a powerful and loving God can take a wounded, broken, desperate man's life and transform it into one of faith, service, and hope. Paul's dynamic delivery and novel humor, along with his straight forward approach of "the issues" has made him a sought after speaker, appearing on the 700 Club, PTL program and others, as well as ministering to those behind bars. He is a decorated veteran of the Vietnam war and is married with one daughter. You can pick up a copy of his autobiography, the shadow of Death, at the conference.

Oscar Ramirez: Oscar served in Vietnam in '67-68 and when he returned, was assigned to special duty as an Honor Guard/Funeral Detail, accompanying the bodies of the men killed in the land he had just left. During the Gulf War, Oscar was activated and served on special assignment, he began counseling after being ordained into the ministry and over the following 20 years, has developed the highly effective process known as Biblical Reality Therapy. Oscar lives in Miami, Florida and works with the Miami Rescue Mission there as Counseling Supervisor, as well as speaking frequently and conducting seminars on addictions and other life controlling issues.

Pastor Norman Clear: Norman was born and raised in Arkansas and says he smoked from the time he was knee-high to a grasshopper and began drinking about that time, too. It was a way of life down in those parts. He served his country during the Korean war and came home with some of the symptoms of PTSD. But they didn't call it that back then. Today Norm is a highly respected minister, counselor and leader in his community here in The Dalles and across the country and is called upon by, not only his own congregation here at Covenant, but by pastors nation-wide for counseling and ministry. He has a wonderful gift of wisdom and insight into the heart issues of life.

Norm Bergsma: Drafted into the army in 1968, he was assigned to the 25th Infantry and sent to Vietnam in March of 1969. Norm exhibits his paintings here this weekend, and expression of one man's journey through PTSD & the struggle to come to terms with war and its aftermath.

Larry Barkemeyer: Larry served with the 1st of the 39th Artillery along the border of Laos and up on the DMZ in 1970-71. He returned to the U. S. to face many of the same battles of life that other veterans did. Larry incorporates words and music to express the emotions and tell the stories of the men and women who served in the Vietnam War. Presently Larry is a social worker in Cottage Grove.

Fellowship and Sharing: Enjoy the camaraderie and fellowship of other veterans and their families, make new friends, experience real spiritual refreshment together. You'll be able to express your story and learn from others during informative discussion groups. Re-Energize Your Marriage; Get away together and find that you are not alone in your experiences with your partner.
