Charley's Market purchased to become a home

Since their wedding in 1985 Sam and Alicia Hess have dreamed of owning a log home. Their dream is now a reality since they purchased Charley's Market to become their home.

They were on a day trip to Mount Hood with their church youth group. Sam doesn't know how to ski so he went to Kah-Nee-Ta Resort instead. On his way there he saw the for sale sign on Charley's Market. He told Alicia about it and they came back to get a closer look and entered their bid in the silent auction.

Alicia says, "It was constructed the same year we were married, the same year we dreamed of owning a log home.'

Their new house will be moved to Astoria where Sam operates Hess Contract Falling,

In order to assist in providing a safe learning environment for students attending the school in Jefferson County School District, we have created a "Safe School HOTLINE".

We are encouraging the publication of the phone number to parents, students and community members. Following is information about the HOTLINE Purpose: To allow students and the community the opportunity to control, monitor and report activities within and around the school that may put themselves and others in danger. How does it work: When students, parents or community members observe, witness or hear of a potential danger occurring in the school setting, they report it to the HOTLINE phone. A phone has been designated to record the calls from the students that an administrator will screen and act upon accordingly. The caller can leave a name if they wish to have feedback or they can remain anonymous Phone number: 475-0390 If you have any questions regarding this new procedure to assist in making a safer environment for the students of Jefferson County

The third annual Huckleberry Harvest a huge success

Harvest, another great success for the Museum At Warm Springs on August 7 & 8, 1998.

The golden sun, beautiful blue

The Third Annual Huckleberry skies and summer breezes cooled Central Oregon's temperatures down, just in time for The Museum At Warm Springs "3rd Annual Huckleberry Harvest." It began at Earl Bates and Ken and Jeanie Smith, co-sponsors of the Huckleberry Harvest.

Sunny Mitchell's Norstar Ranch in Willowdale (just outside of Madras) on Friday evening with over 100 guests for the first night's event. Even co-sponsors were Stephen and Anne Anderson, Ken and Jeanie Smith, Earl Bates and Sunny Mitchell, Delbert and Trina Wheeler, Governor Victor and Delores Atiyeh, Brot and Mary Bishop, Don and Emily Frisbee and Dennis and Marilyn Karnopp. Guests enjoyed the Friday evening country western atmosphere with delectable hors d'oeuvres, sipping their drinks and of course (when you are on a ranch), a great steak dinner.

Saturday's events began at The Museum with Native American dancing, educational lectures by Mary Dodds Schlick, a Behind-the-Scenes Tour, Cedar Bark Basketmaking by Sara Scott, flute music by Arlie Neskahai, and viewing of the Museum's exhibits. At 4:00 p.m. 150 guests convened at the beautiful residence of Ken and Jeanie Smith along the serene Deschutes River. Guests viewed the Silent and Oral Auction items, and competition began immediately. Kahn-Nee-Ta Resort catered all of the event dining, ending with "Bird-In-Clay", Saturday evening. The Silent Auction closed first, and the Oral Auction began with dessert. The Over-night Trail Ride with Delvis Heath, Sr., Chief of the Warm Springs Tribe was one of the most sought after items, won by Ernest McCall, with another by Beverly Healy. An original Triptych of the Disney Earth Day by Jerry Werner went to Trina and Delbert Wheeler. Miniature quilts made by Eraina Palmer graced each table as it's centerpiece, and were auction too. Beautiful art and event items were competitively bid upon at the urging of Auctioneer, B.J. Fowler.

The Museum At Warm Springs '3rd Annual Huckleberry Harvest' was a wonderful success at $150 each, which included both days. Nearly %65,000 was raised, doubling last year's amount, and tripling the first year's event. Congratula-tions go to The Museum At Warm Springs staff for their hard work. All funds raised go the general operating expenses of the Museum At Warm Springs, and helps to fulfill the overall educational mission. Photo was taken by Eraina Palmer.

Spilyay I'nawa Mishk'aau

(Spilyay asks "What's Up?") How do you feel about the students returning back to school?

Robinson (Gorky) Mitchell, "I'm going to miss them, I wish they could keep working, at least half-a-day because they were good workers. I wish them luck in school and hope they plan on coming back to Forestry next year."

Ursula Russell, (9) "I think it's great because it will keep me busy during the day. My favorite activities at school are Track, PE, Music and Tasheyna Sohappy, (12) "It's going to be nice to see all my freinds but I wish the Summer would not have been so short. I'm not really too happy about school. I like participating in sports and stuff."

Janet Bagley, "I think it's good for them to be learning. It also gives the child and the parent a break from each other.'

Trudy Bennett, "The kids are all ready for it, the kids I know. The Summer Youth Workers were great this year and they're looking forward to returning (the one's I've talked to) and work next Summer. The more education our kids get, the better for Travis Wells "It's been a long summer and I hope they're anxious to go back to school. My oldest boy is looking forward to going back to school now and to participating in sports at the middle school. He wasn't able to last year as a fifth grader. My youngest one will be starting kindergarten. It will be a new experience for him coming out of Head Start.'

Iris Smith, "I think it's fine for them to return back to school. They should be going back to school! A lot of them are having hard times at home, and school is an escape for them. I feel bad because a lot of the parents don't help them. They have to help themselves by running around trying to get money for school clothes or other needs.

Harold Pennington, "I feel as if classes are starting early. It's been a short summer and I havn't been able to see my kids as much as I wanted to. Because of this nice warm weather we are having, it's been nice spending time with them before they return to school. Too bad classes start next week instead of after Pendelton Round-Up."
