Kah-Nee-Ta offers management training for employees

Kah-Nee-Ta's management training program was created for advancement of Tribal members to management positions here at the Resort. Kah-Nee-Ta tries to maintain trainees at all times. They currently have one graduate, Carlos Smith, Rooms Division Manager, Gerald Sampson, Jr., in his second year and will be moving to the Food and Beverage Department in September. The third and newest trainee is Scott Moses. Scott put the program on hold this year to take a position as village Gate Manager. He will be moving to the accounting department this winter. A Kah-Nee-Ta trainee signs on for a period of three years and will work in the various departments of the resort. This enables the trainee to find which area of management he/she will pursue. While Kah-Nee-Ta does not guarantee a management position after three years, the trainee has the option of staying at Kah-Nee-Ta working up to, a management position of his/her choice, or accepting another position that may be open. If the trainee elects to leave the reservation, Kah-Nee-Ta will help him/her find a position off the reservation in the hospitality business. Kah-Nee-Ta has been advertising for a management trainee for another position this summer. Receiving only two applicants, the position has remained open in hopes of attracting ambitious Tribal members to apply. This Management Trainee position will close on September 25, 1998. Any person interested in submitting an application may do so by sending a letter of interest along with a current resume to Kah-Nee-Ta Resort, Administration, P.O. Box K, Warm Springs, Oregon 97761 or drop it off at the Resort Administration office.

Passports to Visit Overseas Cemeteries

"No-Fee" passports are available for family members visiting overseas graves and memorial sites of World War I and World War II dead. Those eligible for such passports include surviving spouses, parents, children, sisters, brothers and guardians of the deceased who are buried or commemorated in permanent American military cemeteries on foreign soil. For additional information, write to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Courthouse Plaza II, Suite 500, 2300 Clarendon Blvd., Arlington, VA 22201.

Review of Discharges

Each of the military services maintains a discharge review board with authority to change, correct, or modify discharges or dismissals that are not issued by a sentence of a general court martial. The board has no authority to address medical discharges. The veteran or, if the veteran is deceased or incompetent, the surviving spouse, next of kin or legal representative may apply for a review of discharge by writing, to the military department concerned, using Department of Defense Form 293. This form may be obtained at a VA office. If more than 15 years have passed since discharge, DD Form 149 should be used. Service discharge review boards conduct hearings in Washington, D.C. Traveling review boards also visit selected cities to hear cases. In addition, the Army sends teams to locations to videotape the testimony of applicants for later review by a board in Washington, D.C. Discharges awarded as a result of unauthorized absence in excess of 180 days make persons ineligible for VA benefits regardless of action taken by discharge review boards, unless VA determines there were compelling circumstances for the absences. Boards for the correction of military records also may consider such cases.

Veterans with disabilities incurred or aggravated during active military service may qualify for medical or related benefits regardless of separation and characterization of service. Veterans separated administratively under other than honorable conditions may request that their discharge be reviewed for possible recharacterization, provided they file their appeal within 15 years of the date of separation. Questions regarding the review of a discharge may be addressed to the appropriate discharge review board at the following addresses:

* Army — Army Discharge Review Board, Attention: SFMRBB, Room 200A, 1941 Jefferson Davis Hwy., Arlington, VA 22202-4504.

* Navy and USMC - Navy Discharge Review Board, 801 N. Randolph St., Suite 905, Arlington, VA 22203.

* Air Force - Air Force Military Personnel Center, Attention: DPMDOA1, Randolph AFB, TX 78150-6001.

* Coast Guard - Coast Guard, Attention: GPEI, Washington, DC 20593.

To the community of Warm Springs,

I apologize for shooting a gun around the community center parking lot on the night of 8/14/97. I, myself or somebody else could have been seriously hurt due to my being intoxicated and to everyone who was in the parking lot that night. I am sorry and hope you can accept my apology. I meant nobody no harm at the time. I thought I was "having fun".

Thank you.
