Briefing to focus on questions

The Northwest Power Planning Council and the National Marine Fisheries Service will jointly host a technical discussion of the PATH analysis of salmon survival in the lower Snake and Columbia rivers on February 25, 1999 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Central office, Northwest Power Planning Council; 851 SW Sixth Avenue, Suite 1100; Portland, OR 97204.

Purpose: The meeting will provide the opportunity to discuss technical questions and issues related to the analysis of fish recovery options by the PATH process. It will focus primarily on questions relating to the assumptions, analytical techniques and results of the PATH analysis. It is not intended to address policy application of these results.

Format Because there is a limited amount of time allotted to the meeting, the Council and NMFS may need to prioritize or group questions and issues to arrive at a manageable number, but this is not intended to preclude questions or prevent an informative discussion.

The briefing will focus primarily on questions and issues submitted in advance. Persons interested in submitting questions for consideration should them by February 4, 1999 to: John Palensky; National Marine Fisheries Service; 525 NE Oregon, Suite 50; Portland, OR 97232.

Pre-registration is required. Call COCC Madras at 475-2136 for more information.

NASU Club is a leadership club

by NASU Club members & Myrna Frank, Advisor
Beginning this week the NASU Club will submit club news about what we're planning and the goals we hope to meet.

The NASU Club is a leadership oriented club for Native American students at the 509-J school district. The NASU club consists of Madras High School and Jefferson County Middle School students. The club meets every week on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Currently we are discussing fund raising for an end of the year trip. NASU is focusing on seminars, conferences, cultural awareness, tribal government, education and how important it is to our future; hopefully we will tour the reservation's resources; community involvement and how we can help ourselves and others. "Native American Week" is coming up and we want to plan something for that week. Input is welcome.

We are asking for your support in helping us to succeed in our goals, we do our best to keep you informed on what's going on through the Spilyay.

NASU would also like to congratulate a good friend and supporter, Becky Soliz on winning the "Miss Warm Springs" contest. Congratulations Becky! We're proud of you. Anything we can do during your reign, let us know, we'll be there for you. Like travel with you! Have fun and God Bless you.

Loss of equipment due to break in will hurt community members

There is no...
Big Screen TV
Dance Lights (so no dances)
Aerobics music
Aerobics speakers
Nintendo 64
Movies in Carol's room
Music over PA system
These are the special things that the Community Wellness Staff provided for the public.

Now that these items are gone, it makes you wonder, "why steal from your own people?"
People in the community, be aware of what's going on, start watching out for each other.
It also makes you wonder about that saying when you were a kid, "Can't buy anything" or "Can't keep anything nice."
The Community Wellness was broken into and vandalized the night of February 2.

The Community Wellness Center is a public place for all community members to go and exercise or attend weekend events with their families.
To break in and destroy or steal items from the Community Wellness Center doesn't affect only the staff but the community members who utilize it for aerobics or other types of physical fitness activity and the youth who go there after school.

IHS celebrates five years in new building

Warm Springs Elementary School kids enjoy a puppet show at IHS during their five year building celebration.

On February 3, from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m., the community was invited by Indian Health Services of Warm Springs, to attend their open house celebrating five years of service at the current location. The open house included a 1/2 presentation comparing services and the facility from before 1993 to the current facility and it's services. A puppet show for the kids was provided by the Dental department along with a mini health information fair. Cookies and refreshments were also served during the open house.

A community Forum was held towards the evening (6 pm) starting with a meal (Stew, Fry Bread and dessert) at 5 pm in the Administration Waiting area. The Forum was conducted by Clint Jacks and Ron Suppah to identify, (1.) The weakness of the Health and Wellness Center (2.) The strengths of the Health and Wellness Center (3.) What areas of improvement or what services would you like to see in the next 5-10 years at the Health and Wellness Center.

Small groups were formed following the format, and priorities were identified for question number 3.
For more information or valuable input, contact the Warm Springs Health and Wellness Center at 553-1196.
