Madras wins but doesn't make play-offs

Madras had a big game on February 19, against the 1-9 Valiants from Valley Catholic. Their only win was against the buffs on their home floor so Madras was looking to redeem themselves. Madras had to play without Senior Jared Moses because of actions that had occurred earlier in the day.

Madras let them know right away who was in charge as they jumped out in the first quarter 19-8 and never looked back.

The buffs continued to outscore the valiants in the second 22 to 12 and went into half-time leading 41 to 20.

Valley Catholic tried to rally in the third as they outscored the home team by 14. This made the score 55 to 40, buffs still with a comfortable lead going into the fourth.

In the fourth the two teams scored 20+ plus points apiece but Madras was too much for the valiants and won with a score of 82-68.

Keller Christensen led all Madras with 20 points while Jake Jaca added 18 points.

This win would have helped the buffs chances in making the play-offs but Wilsonville also won, and knocked the buffs out of play-off hopes.

buffs close with a score of 21-15.

In the third period Marie Kalama had three 3's to lead the buffs as they scored 18 to the valiants 6. The score the buffs 33, valiants 27.

In the fourth both teams started to score but Madras was outscored 12 to 18 and this sent the game into an extra period.

Tiffany Mapston was too much for the buffs to handle as she scored 4 points in the overtime and her team scored 10 to Madras 8. Final score 55-53.

Marie Kalama was the leading scorer for the buffs with 15 while teammate Cece Polk added 12. Tiffany Mapston lead all scores with 31.

The buffs will get another crack at the Valiants but this time it will be a League Playoff game and the loser being done for the season. Action will take place in the Buffalo dome on Wednesday, February 24, 1999. Game time is at 7:00. No passes may be used to get into the game.
