

Spilyay Tymoo Sports

N.I.A.A. 6ft-Under B-ball tourney brings excitement to Warm Springs

United Tribes out of Lapwai, ID were the winners of the N.A.I.I. 6ft and under tournament

Jake Suppah shoots over a defender during the nationals tourney

Oaktree-Flagstaff team that traveled from Arizona to go home with second place in the tourney

N.I.A.A. 6FT-Under results

Here are the results from the 1999 N.I.A.A. 6ft-Under Nationals, which were held here in Warm Springs and at the Madras High School Gymnasium.

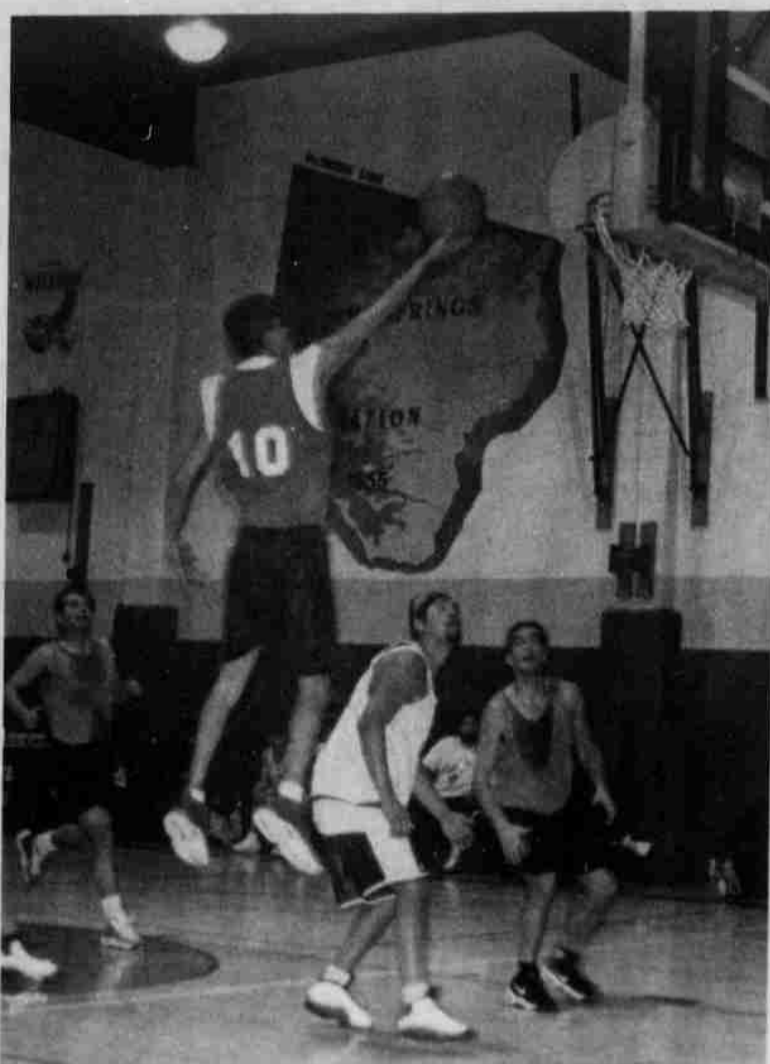

Taking home first place was United Tribes out of Lapwai, ID. Second place went to Oaktree-Flagstaff, AZ. Third place went to Peak to Peak out of Chiloquin, OR. The Wolf Pack from Auburn, WA claimed fourth place. Fifth place went to Indian Pride from Simnasho, OR. Sixth place went to the WS Magpies who were the host team this year. Sportsmanship went to Reno, Nevada.

The Most Valuable Player award went to Dave Cunningham, from United Tribes.

Mr. Hustle went to Mike Nelson from Oaktree-Flagstaff, AZ.

All-stars include: Donnie Jerry-Auburn, James Scott-Indian Pride, Leeroy Couerville-Auburn, Stan Overturf-Oaktree, Jake Suppah-Magpies, Blake Stiffarm-Sports Corner, Scotty Williams-United Tribes, Manny Ochoa-Peak to Peak, Brad Parish-Peak to Peak, Delane HasNoHorse-Lakota Thunder, Allen West-Oaktree and Bob Sabotta-United Tribes.

Other teams participating: Goldendale, WA/ Pendleton, OR/ Valley Panthers-Granger, WA/ Toppenish, WA/Pendleton, OR/The Dalles, OR/ Running Rebels-Warm Springs, OR/ Scouts-Warm Springs, OR/ Oregon Nation-Warm Springs, OR/ Team Oregon "Cougars"/ Columbia River Chinooks/ Harrah, WA.

United Tribes team member soars in for an easy lay up

An Oaktree-Flagstaff player tries to take it to the hoop against the United Tribes defense

Photos by
Selena Boise