New members appointed to Jefferson County Commission on Children and Families

The Jefferson County Board of County Commissioners recently appointed several new members to the Jefferson County Commission on Children and Families. In an effort to provide county wide representation on the board, Commissioner Janet Brown eagerly sought out interested individuals from Warm Springs to Crooked River Ranch. New members include Heather Crow-Martinez, a Warm Springs resident currently working for Bridgeway East; Rita Dunn from Crooked River Ranch; Molly Rankin a freshman at Madras High school; and Tim Kreuger, a Culver farmer who also serves on the Culver School Board. This is the first time since legislation created local Commission's on Children and Families in 1993, that the board had full membership, according to Diane Treadway, Director. The Commission on Children and Families is a community based advisory board to the county commissioners. Its role is to engage local citizens in the development of a comprehensive plan for services to children, youth and families. Additionally, the CCF provides state and federal funding for local programs and activities. Current programs funded by the CCF include, the SMART Reading Program, the Boys and Girls Club, Peer Court, Juniper Youth Services, COCAAN's Housing Program, the Early Childhood Center, and others. Several sub committees of the CCF also provide leadership in the area of juvenile crime and alcohol, tobacco and other drug (ATOD) prevention. Madras Together! and the R.A.P.P. (Reduce Adolescent Pregnancy Project) are two examples. New projects underway include a mentoring project, a Teen Pregnancy Summit and the development of a comprehensive ATOD plan. Community members, especially students are encouraged to get involved. If interested contact Diane Treadway at 475-9426.

Nathena Jim princess candidate

Hello, my name is Nathena Jim. I'm a candidate for Princess for the Na Mee Pacha Ma Celebration to be held at Whit Swan, on the weekend of April 30- May 2, 1999.
My parents are Tonia Hall and late Nathan Jim Jr. My grandparents are Ella Jim and Nathan "8-ball" Jim Sr., of Warm Springs, OR, Naomi Polk of White Swan, WA.
I live in Warm Springs, OR. I'm in kindergarten at the Warm Springs Elementary school. I'm 5 years old and I like to go to pow-wows and Jingle dance.
I am Yakama and Warm Springs descent.

Satus Powwow to be held in May

The committee of the Satus Longhouse pow wov would like to invite everyone to Satus on Mother's Day weekend, May 6, 7, 8 and 9, 1999. On May 6 the Longhouse will open with memorials and other ceremonies to begin the weekend. Pow wov will start on Friday night.

Please help find Toby

To the editor,
To whom it may concern: I'm not sure who to address this letter to, but I'm really hoping you can help me. I'm looking for someone who is very special to me. His name is Willard Fent. He is called "Toby or Tobiano". He is a Warm Springs Native. He has a beautiful spirit and he has "touched my heart". Because of circumstances beyond our control, we have lost contact with one another. I haven't got to talk to him since December 98. I really want to let Toby know how I feel and where I am. My name is Mary Sterritt-Carr and I would like to hear from anyone who knows any-sage to him. So maybe if you would print something in your paper, someone would recognize him and let him know. I have to try. Because when two spirits are so much a part of each other as Toby & I. It is rare and I don't want us to simply get lost from one another. If I can help it.

"Thank you" for taking the time to read this and please send some sort of response so I could know.
Sincerely,
Mary Sterritt-Carr

Q and A about Native American Self Help

What is Native American Self Help? (Herein called N.A.S.H.)
Operated by Warm Springs tribal member James Wolfe and wife Patricia GoldenHawk, Native American Self Help was founded by people who have "been there" and overcome their struggles. N.A.S.H. was formed in response to the need for an organization which incorporates support with healing. At this time, we are an all-volunteer organization. A volunteer board of directors holds responsibility for overall management of the organization. Individuals are elected to join this diverse group of concerned citizens by other board members. We are committed to helping ourselves and others to heal and stay healthy. We are committed to helping those who wish to return to or learn their individual traditions and culture with respect, dignity and honor to ourselves, our people and our ancestors. We also help those who may not be Native American. This group is Spiritual based and has the support and guidance of a Traditional Elder and Spiritual Leader who has been doing prison work and Alcohol/Drug counseling for many years.
We are a non-profit organization registered in the State of Oregon, and have received our Federal 501 (c) (3) status as a Foundation.
What are N.A.S.H. goals?
Our immediate goals are to develop and provide immediate referral to resources such as housing, jobs, support and treatment for those coming out of prison or treatment and off the streets. To continue and increase our Circles and support of those in need.
Our long term goals are to establish an intensive Outpatient Center and clean and sober housing outside of the downtown area that will provide a safe, clean environment to help residents avoid returning to destructive, unhealthy lifestyles.
What makes N.A.S.H. unique?
N.A.S.H. provides an important bridge between those coming out of prison or off the streets and spiritual, tribal and treatment facilities; between the Western and indigenous traditions; and among peoples of all faiths. It provides important learning's and healing experiences for people who are searching for a way to integrate their spirituality and their healing.
What programs and services does N.A.S.H. offer?
N.A.S.H. works to develop and provide immediate referral and resources for those coming out of prison or treatment and off the streets. The program works effectively with parole boards, probation and parole officers, and social services in Oregon and other states. N.A.S.H. also sets up workable programs with probation and parole officers as sponsors of their clients that have shown a desire to heal. We have provided statements of support and commitment to those seeking parole. We arrange treatment with outpatient and inpatient facilities under the guidance of an elder alcohol and drug counselor and outreach worker and a licensed family therapist. We assist those wanting contact with their tribes for information, enrollment, and connecting with elders. The program provides transportation for individuals from prison to treatment, to meetings, to job interviews, and to various reservations, including those out of state. We sponsor a support circle at 635 SW 19th Ave. #123 in Portland, Ore. every Tuesday evening. The location is very accessible to homeless people and those recently released from prison into subsidized housing.

We support the Spirit Learning Drum which holds weekly practice and drums at various ceremonies and celebrations.
For more information about the program or to set up an appointment contact Patricia GoldenHawk or James Wolfe, toll free (888) 281-8964 or (503) 279-8964.
Write to Native American Self Help, PO Box 5043 Portland, Or 97208-5043. N.A.S.H. honors all spiritual beliefs. However, we are united in the belief that the spiritual dimension of life is important in healing and continuing to honor ourselves, our people and our ancestors.

of the world of work. The result is more students stay in school. Further, mentorships can turn into Summer jobs.
There are currently over 200 opportunities for students in Warm Springs and Madras. One may be just right for your student.
Get your daughter or son thinking about what they might like to do after high school. Then encourage them to talk to their counselor or STW facilitator about enrolling in STW. Give him or her the opportunity to kick a career tire, look under its hood and take it for a test drive.
You can reach the 509-J STW office at 475-3292.
