The Indian Warriror - The Veterans Corner Minority Veterans Program

Minority Veterans Programs. "Stepping out to meet our American Veterans."

Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Portland and Vancouver

How Does the Program Help Minority Veterans?

- Implements outreach strategies to assist veterans in accessing VA services.
• Informs and assists veterans in the communities on a continuous basis of available resources.
• Closes communication gaps between minority veterans' communities and VA services with unique outreach events.
• Establishes new programs and services as necessary to meet the specific needs of minority veterans.
• Links concerns and issues affecting the minority veteran community with the Portland VA Medical Center, Regional Office, National Service Officers, Vet Centers, and affiliated organizations.
• Monitors existing VA services and programs ensuring the unique needs of minority veterans are addressed.

• Introduces a working relationship between providers and veterans in the community.

• Works with Medical Center Director, Center for Minority Affairs and VA headquarters to determine use of services and benefits by the minority veteran population.

Why Was the Minority Veterans Program Started?

The Minority Veterans Program was started to assist the Department of Veterans Affairs to reach out to all American veterans, guaranteeing that access to and quality of VA services will be the same for everyone.

The program's coordinator serves as program advisor, advocate, instructor, coordinator, analyst, monitor, motivator and mentor for minority veterans issues.

Program Goals

- 1. Provide a common ground of support for minority veterans seeking assistance and utilization of VA medical services, benefits, and programs.
2. Recognize the unique needs of minority veterans and provide resources to meet these needs.
3. Reach out to minority veterans in creatively, knowledgeable and respectfully.
4. Ensure that providers of services to minority veterans, including medical center staff, address the unique circumstances and needs of all veterans.

Did you know that...

• During wartime the total national statistics for Asian/Pacific

Islanders were 186,367 (WWI/Vietnam).

• The highest number of Medal of Honor recipients are Hispanic-Americans.

• Lieutenant Everett Alvarez, Jr., was the first American and first Hispanic to become a prisoner of war, North Vietnam (1964), for eight and a half years.

• General Benjamin O. Davis was the first African-American general officer in the United States military (WWII).

• Navajos were called "Code talkers." The use of the complex Navajo language confounded the Japanese. The "code" was never broken (Marine Corps, WWII).

Where does the Minority Program receive its authority?

The Minority Veterans Program is authorized as a component of the Center of Minority Veterans which was established under P.L. 103-446, November 2, 1994. The Center's goals are to promote the use of existing VA programs, benefits, and services by Minority Veterans and to propose new programs, benefits and services to meet the specific needs of Minority Veterans.
