1999 November Fitness Challenge to begin

The Community Wellness Center has announced the guidelines for the 1999 November Fitness Challenge. The annual event is open to all Warm Springs Tribal Departments and Enterprises and extends their invitation to include the Indian Health Services; Bureau of Indian Affairs; Warm Springs Elementary and Kah-nee-ta. The fitness challenge begins November 1, 1999 and goes through November 30, 1999.

All persons entering the challenge are required to pay an $8.00 fee to enter as an individual participant or $5.00 fee to enter as a team participant. A t-shirt will be given to each paying participant at the Awards luncheon taking place Thursday, December 9, 1999 at noon in the Community Wellness Center Social Hall. If there are less than five people in a department and you want to enter as a team, you will be allowed to enter with other person in the same departmental branch.

Points are awarded to each challenger for accumulating time for participating in various fitness related activities such as walking, running, swimming, skiing and aerobics. Other fitness activities such as basketball and boxing to name a couple will have time limits that a person can accumulate for each day.

Andrew Smith is available at the Community Wellness Center for registration and a complete list of rules and details. Registration for the challenge opened October 18, 1999 and will continue until November 11, 1999.

Triple bonus points will be awarded for persons participating in the Diabetes Awareness/ Poker fun run/walk being held Monday, November 1, 1999. Bonus points and a t-shirts will be awarded on a first come first serve basis.

The Tribal Council will be defending their 1998 Championship title. A word of encouragement from Andrew Smith, Fitness Coordinator for the Warm Springs Community Wellness Center, "Making the choice to be different will change the way you think and look at yourself. So look forward to having fun throughout the month of November. And remember your calorie intake. If you burn more calories than you intake in a day you'll notice the difference after awhile. So remember that a combination of self-discipline and proper nutrition will help you make the difference, so get out their and make it happen."
