This will be a day we will always remember and cherish. Mahalo!

Mr. & Mrs. Keiki Rauschenburg

Wedding announcement

Please join Francis Wayne Kalama and Debra Verna Smith as they exchange wedding vows in a traditional Indian ceremony on Tuesday, February 29, 2000 at the Agency Longhouse. The ceremony will begin at 6:30 in the evening.

Seeking pageant contestants

Tracy Crist, the Oregon State Director for the MRS. AMERICA system is announcing that the search is on for MRS. (insert your city here) and MRS. (insert your county here) COUNTY. The city and county representative will then advance on to compete in the MRS. OREGON AMERICA PAGEANT that will be held March 24-25 at the beautiful Spirit Mountain Resort in Grande Ronde.

Interested applicants must live in or work in the city limits of (insert your city here) or the county limits of (insert your county here), must be married during the state competition, a resident of the state for at least 6 months, a United States citizen and be at least 18 years old. There is no age limit or performing talent required.

This is your chance to "toot Oregon's horn", to show the pride you have in your family and to really LIVE life by going out on a limb a little. As the old saying goes, "nothing ventured, nothing gained" and you will gain so much. You will gain in poise and maturity. It's your chance to become more involved in your community and even become more knowledgeable about the state that you call home. You will look at everything in a different (perhaps brighter) light-Oregon itself, your family and even your career. Without a doubt, this pageant will be beneficial to you.

Call the pageant office at (847) 245-7215 or e-mail us for FREE information at TRACY-CRIST@msn.com.

"A Vision For You & I"
Often I wonder where I stand in this life
My future has many paths that lead in every direction
The choices in life are many, I need to choose
My destiny lies somewhere, only known by the Creator.
My mind races trying to catch my heart's desires
Always seeking & striving for Self-Success
Knowing people and places around the world and there are many I search my heart & soul of where I may want to be...
Over and over my thoughts extend to distant lands
Wondering...Is my destiny to help other people find their direction?

Do I follow my dreams and visions of opportunity?
The Words of Wisdom shared by many who have gone ahead and remembered.
Words encouraging me to strive on to better my walk
Remembering to Trust your... "Faith in the Creator"
Listening to the Creator and yearning to make it happen
I only can pray that I can make the right choices
People don't make mistakes only lessons learned
Never give up your visions and dreams to strive for your life's successes.

To the editor,

Good things still happen on our Rez! Sometimes all that we can do as people is look at the gloomy side of life and feel totally bad and upset at the world. But if we take the time and look around we can still find good things happening. An example of this would be the recent opening of the Three Warriors Market in Simnasho. The Tribal membership that have offered comment on the store have been real supportive and appreciative. I feel good about the turn out for the grand opening event because there was a real sense of unity. That support not only came through tribal membership's attendance but also in their generosity of the donations that they gave for the door prize drawings.

We are slowly getting stocked with the inventory that the people have been requesting. We can't always get everything that everyone wants but we will make sincere effort to try and get it. Please feel free to comment and to make suggestions on what we can do to provide the best services and goods.

There are many people that we need to thank and recognize for making the store the success it is: first, the technical support of Leminnie Smith of the business and economic development office; Jamie Burleigh, Lisa Sledge, Sonya Bryant, Mike Collins, Joyce Erb, and Judy Johnson of Finance; The Purchasing staff; Warehouse troops; Patches and crew; Danielle Switzer and Michelle Stacona of the internal auditors office; the personnel department; Mike Clements and Sal Sahme from BE & D; Paul Vaeth from Utilities; Ray Moody; Tribal Council; and last but not least the tribal membership. The effort and time that it took to do what has been done has been great, but also very rewarding.

Thank you from the Three Warriors staff!!!

The company that built this wonderful facility is LCM. They did a great job and were very easy to work with throughout the project. They also donated the sign that is mounted above the entrance door. The artwork for the sign was drawn by Ken Sahme. PCI did the fuel station work and also were a joy to work with. They just came in and did the job and were gone. It's hard sometimes to find excellent contractors such as them.

To the editor,
I'd like you to print this poem in the next issue of the Spilyay, here it is below:

"This is my Story"
Hope by sharing this with all of you out there on the rez. I'll find someone who can relate, someone cares about life with God. I find myself stuck in a situation I can't find a way out. I put myself here... It's all around me, I can't hide, my future is in doubt. I try to stay out of trouble here in prison, but always seem to find me... Just when I think I've gotten ahead in life it creeps up behind me. I don't have any place to go or anyone to turn to for help... I'm all alone in this struggle. Just me, by myself... Well that's what I use to think but last year or two years ago, in USP Lompoc I've gotten baptized 10/25/98 that all came to an end. I finally discovered my one & only true friend. As I lie down to sleep & tears rolled down on my pillow, I heard someone whisper to me & felt their hand on my head. It was an angel of God who come to me that night. Our Lord Jesus Christ was with her but it was true! I know now! What I should have known. Gods always with us, we're never alone. Thanks again.
