Welcome Home --Vietnam Veterans

Vietnam Veterans of America

"Never again will one generation of veterans abandon another."

The only thing that's changed is the Uniforms

Membership is open to all who served in the military during the Vietnam era (both in-country and at duty stations overseas, stateside, and at sea). Vietnam Veterans of America is the nation's largest and most successful Vietnam veterans organization and the only Vietnam veterans organization chartered by Congress.

Our members come from all walks of life and all parts of the community. From farmers and factory workers to civic and corporate leaders, we're your neighbors, colleagues, family, and friends.

While providing a positive forum for social and emotional interaction among members, our central focus is on providing a strong, united voice for resolving issues of vital importance to veterans and their families—locally, statewide, and nationally.

In addition, we support numerous community-based projects and causes. Through our generous volunteers and charitable support, Vietnam Veterans of America helps organizations throughout America to carry on good work for children, the handicapped, the homeless, and many others.

Our members are among the 8 1/2 million men and women who served during the Vietnam era. We represent every service, rank, and background, working together for a single purpose...to help our fellow vets!

We're leading the challenge to make a difference

Here's a list of a few of the things we have been involved in over the years:

Veterans Advocacy

- Vietnam Veterans of America is the leading advocate for recognition of health issues still affecting veterans
- Agent Orange
- Post-traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)
- Hepatitis-C

- National advocate for women veterans issues to insure proper recognition of services for benefits and appropriate medical care for women in VA facilities.

- VVA members gain full access to our Veteran Service Representatives through America to obtain advice and resolution of veteran disability claims and entitlements.

- Our Government Relations Staff works full time to insure your voice and needs are heard in Washington, C.C. and in state legislatures. We are the only veterans service organization dedicated solely to helping Vietnam vets.

- The Veterans Initiative Program is a veterans-too-veterans effort that promotes the direct exchange of information on unaccounted for American and Vietnamese casualties.

Serving America's Veterans and their Families

- Veterans Support Centers across America
- Expanding economic opportunities for veterans
- Scholarships for family members of Vietnam Vets
- Color and Honor Guard support

- Veterans Against Drugs campaign unites veterans with their local community to keep kids healthy and drug-free.

- Our award winning publication, The VVA Veteran, will keep you informed about all the latest topics. Use its locator service to find lost buddies or learn about the next reunion.

It's as true now as it was back then. There's no place like home.

Which is why, after all these years, veterans of the Vietnam era are still working together on more fronts than ever-to make "home" and even better place. Make the "right choice."

9th Annual Women's Wellness Conference begins May 8,

On May 8-11, 2000, Native women from across the United States and Canada will gather at the Doubletree Hotel Hayden Island, in Portland, Oregon for the Ninth Annual Conference on Wellness and Women to discuss approaches for developing a healthy lifestyle. Sponsored by the University of Oklahoma College of Continuing Education, the conference promotes wellness in the workplace, family and community. The theme this year is "Leading our Youth with Gentle Footsteps". The aim is to encourage women with healthy lifestyles to model their wellness to women and younger generations.
 The conference kicks off with a health fair on Monday May 8. Women can participate in different wellness screening activities and free mammograms are available to all Native women throughout the conference. The conference workshops include Breast feeding and the Working Mom, Exercise, Nutrition and Self Care for the Busy Women; Menopause with Zest, Creating Positive Change and Woman's Role in spirituality. Other sessions include domestic violence, anger control, time management, mental wellness, self-esteem and communication. Counselors and listeners will be available throughout the conference.

Other activities will include arts and crafts sessions, cleansing ceremonies and fitness activities. Traditional healing sessions will be available by appointment. Following the workshops participants will have an opportunity to meet and greet their peers during sponsored evening festivities. Participants will have an opportunity to show their artistic side at a talent show and participate at the Millennium Dinner and Dance.

Health Promotion Programs Director Billy Rogers explained "This year's conference honors the wisdom, service and contribution of native women. Taking a leadership position in modeling wellness includes vision, skills, introspection and patience leadership characteristic of native traditions."

For a brochure or more information about this conference, contact Oklahoma University's Health Promotion Programs at (405) 325-1790 or visit the programs web site at hp.ou.edu.

Howlak Tichum William "Bill" Christensen

William "Bill" Christensen died in his sleep at his home in Madras, Oregon March 22, 2000.
 Bill was born in Firth, Idaho on February 9, 1936 to Ed and Libby Christensen, both deceased.
 Christensen served in the U.S. Navy in the mid-1950s, after which he returned to Eastern Idaho where he attended Idaho State University, majoring in Economics.

 At ISU Bill met and married Kathleen Sauter and had two sons, Edwin Christensen, 37 from New Jersey with his wife Sharon, Michael Christensen, 32 from Cape Town, South Africa with his wife Tania and their son Jack.
 Following his years at ISU, Bill and Kathy moved to Southern California where he worked for Mobil Oil Company. The last 25 years he worked for various Indian Tribes including the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs since 1990.

 Bill loved his sons, his friends, books and staying up late on the internet.
 A memorial service was held at the Kah-Nee-Ta Village Pavilion Friday afternoon, March 31, 2000.
