Thank you
Warm Springs & Madras

It's a go...where off to the Conference, with many thanks to the hundreds of you who supported us.

- Much thanks goes to Rudy, Jeff and Margie of Indian Head Casino who sponsored our airline tickets to Toronto.
- WSFPI who donated $200 to our trip.
- Ericksen's Sentry for allowing us to set up a hotdog stand and donating condiments and food to the stand. The Madras community who supported our efforts, and donated generously.
- Hatfield's who donated a gift certificate.
- Figaro's who donated pizza gift certificates.
- Tiger Mart who donated a detailing gift certificate.
- 3 Bucks or Less of Bend for stuffed animals and collector watches.
- Museum who donated a beautiful sweatshirt.
- Beadshop of Madras who donated a Sarapi Blanket.
- Sid Miller who donated a Spilyay Hat and Subscription.
- Tricia Courtney Sahme who donated a beautiful pendleton vest.
- Maxine Switzler who donated beautiful cutbead art.
- Harry Miller who donated a beautiful dentellium necklace.
- Tina Aguilar who donated a small wapas bag.
- The people of Utilities who arranged for benches, chairs, barbeques and so forth so each one of our food sales were a success.
- Administration Front desk, The Indian Health Service, and Early Childhood Education, who showcased our bidding items for the silent auction.
- The many people who bought raffle tickets. And the young girls like Valerie Suppah, MayAnne, Ashley, Georgie and Evelyn Aguilar who sold them. By the way, we have many winners, we'll be them soon.
- The families of the teachers who volunteered many hours to help set up tables, cook, and clean after every function.
- The Culture and Heritage Committee who sponsored one of the committee members to go.
- Carol who helped us make hats and taught us to have fun.
- If we have forgotten to list you here, know that you are listed in our hearts as a friend and family of the Warm Springs Language Program.
