

Class of 2000, "Ending a millenium with memories, starting a new with dreams"

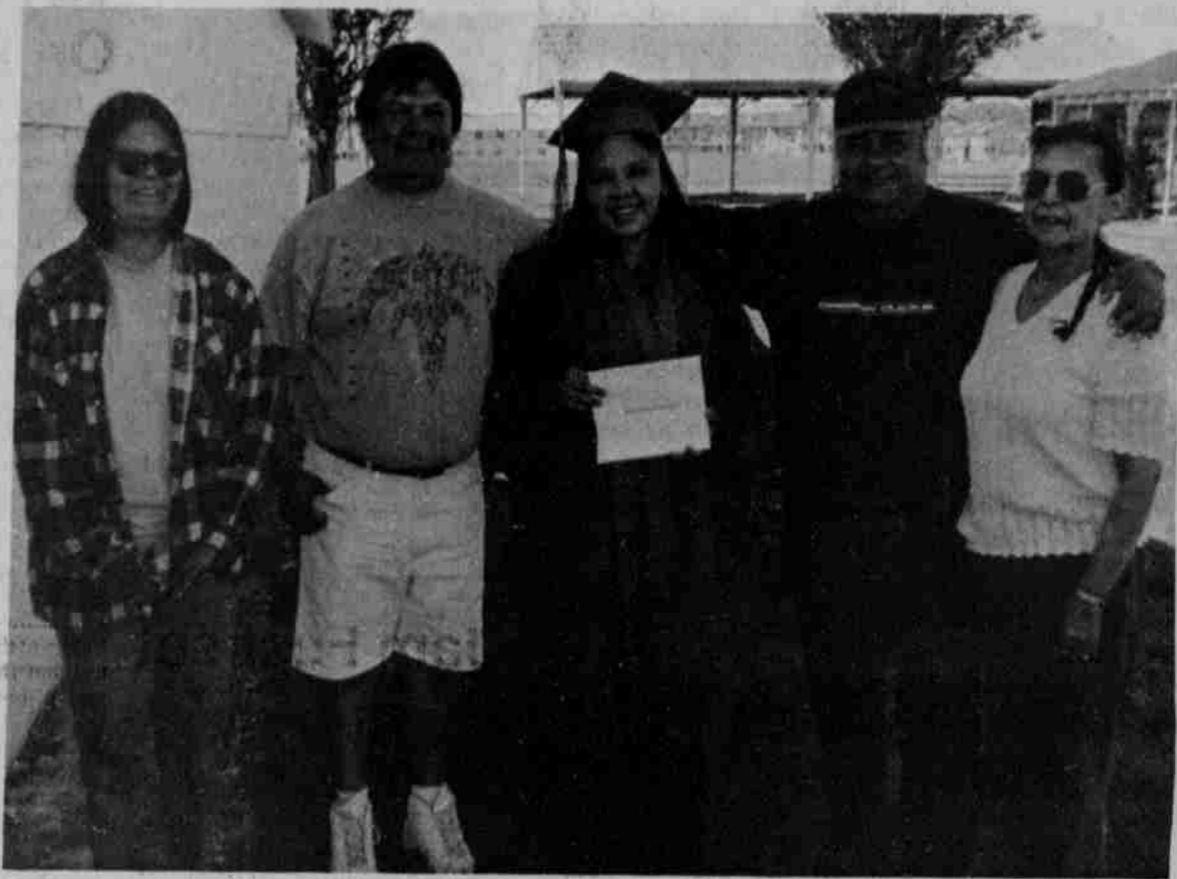

Madras High School ROTC, begin the celebration by presenting the Color Guard

Class of 2000 shines on! There were 130 Madras High School students who graduated Saturday, June 3.

Class of 2000 graduates Steven Courtney, and Estiomina Made

Graduate Denise Clements, (center of photo), and family members from left to right are auntie Georgette Clements, father Luther Clements, and grandparents George and Janice Clements

"Thumbs Up" class of 2000 is out of here to bigger and better things

Inside a crowded and hot Madras High School Gym, many excited and proud moms, dads, brothers, sisters, aunts & uncles, and grandparents, gathered to witness a memorable event.

The special occasion involved 130 Madras High School students, who graduated Saturday, June 3. The Madras High School Class of 2000 graduation ceremony included 29 students from Warm Springs.

The students included Anna Brunoe, Denise Clements, Steven Courtney, Levi Dowty, Reina Estimo, Craig Graham, Lillian Heath, Violet Heath, Una Johnson, Kira Langnese, Estiomina Made, Valeri Miller, Foster Sahme, Bernadette Smith, Rachel Smith, Sheena Stevens, Loriann Suppah, Steven Tias, Gerald Tias, Harlen Waheneka, Tashina Smith, Phillip Squiemphen, Terri Carnes, Tamira Hyde, Allen Jackson, Melissa Kibby, Melanie Smith, Natasha Suarez, and Sunshine Yubeta

The Warm Springs Higher Education Department provided the names of other Warm Springs graduates. Those graduating from Anadarko Indian High School are Earl Charley, Thomas Charley, Candace Heath, Bruce Jim Jr., and Tanya Tewee. Amy Suppah graduated from Chemewa Indian High School.

Other graduates include Elizabeth Earl-Kalama, St. Helens High School, Shawnrae Gabriel, Agassiz School (BC), Jermaine Spino, The Dalles, Todd Henry, Southern Wasco Union High School, Michael Louis Foster, Milwaukee High School, and Dustin Howtopat, of Granted High School, in Utah. Dustin made top 5% "NATIONALLY" in his class.

Steven Anderson, Rosa Bill, Reanna Charley, Virgil Orange Jr., Angela Sanders, Brandon Smith, Dayle Tufti, Bernadine Watlamett, and Ramona Wewa all received their G.E.D. certificates.

If you have any questions regarding the Class of 2000, or if you would like to add someone to the list, please contact the Warm Springs Higher Education Department at (541) 553-3311 or 3312.

Spilyay Tymoo photos by Bob Medina

