Tribal Council Agenda

September 25, 2000

Saturday, September 16th brought the completion of the Crooked River Bridge with events scheduled beginning at 10 am. The work on the bridge began November 1, 1997. The gorge itself is approximately 300 feet deep from this location and the average daily traffic count on the High Bridge is 8,800 vehicles

Festivities included a parade of vintage cars with present and former residents who were involved with the construction and opening of the original bridge completed in 1926. Spe-cial speakers included Henry Hewitt, Director Grace Crunican, Bob Bryant, historian Lewis L. McArthur, David Goodyear, designer engineer for the new bridge, Laurie Warner, deputy director for the Oregon Parks and Recreations Department and Alyssa Macy, Miss Warm Springs and Jr. Miss Warm Springs, Cecilia Herrera

Following the parade the pub-lic was invited to the Peter Skene Ogden Scenic Wayside for viewing of community displays, vintage cars and refreshments. Children were invited to participate in a bridge building contest using marshmallows and toothpicks.

The new bridge cost approximately $18.3 million is 535 feet long and is 79 feet wide replaces the High Bridge built in 1926 for $180,000.

Auction set for September

Part of the autumn experience in Bend, Oregon is fundraising auctions-lots of them. Citizens must pick and choose which to support. Worth attention and attendance on this year's slate of choices is the September 29th "River Visions ... and Earth Visions" benefit auction for the Deschutes Basin Land Trust.

Protecting & Preserving

Support of this organization helps protect and preserve the one thing they aren't making any more of: land. Among the outstanding examples of lands protected and pre-served by the Deschutes Basin Land Trust are Indian Ford Meadow at Black Butte, the Trout Creek Conservation Area, 840 acres of Crooked River National Grassland, and Camp Polk wetland and meadow habitat. The Land Trust has also mediated in important land exchanges, notably the Crown Pacific exchange of 4,000 acres with the U.S. Forest Service. "Nobody's fur flies when the Deschutes Basin Land Trust is in-vited into the process," states board member Alice Koehler of Tumalo." because all parties are participating on a voluntary basis.

Presenting: Artist Lillian Pitt Auction attendees will not only support activities of the Land Trust, but will also have a unique opportunity to meet the nationally known ceramic artist and metal sculptor, Lillian Pitt, and to purchase her most recent work. This opportunity is made possible by the collaboration of Frame Design and Sunbird Gallerv of Bend, which exclusively represents Pitt in the Bend area and facilitated her appearance at this auc-

The auction will be held in Aspen Hall at Shevlin Park from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., Friday, September 29. For tickets and more information, contact Jessica Huettl at the Deschutes Basin Land Trust, 330-0017.

"The Great Escape" (the world's largest fire drill" to take place in Warm Springs October 8-14

Warm Springs Fire & Safety has teamed up with NFPA, the official sponsor of Fire Prevention Week for nearly 80 years, and other fire departments across North America to actively support "The Great Escape" (the worlds largest fire drill) during Fire Prevention Week 2000, October

"The Great Escape" is a threeyear public safety campaign aimed at making people safer from fire by motivating them to develop and practice a home fire escape plan. Results from the past two years highlight the campaign's effectiveness: NFPA has documented hundreds of thousands of families participating in "The Great Escape" each year, with 58 lives saved as a direct result, including 35 children under the age of 12. In addition, NFPA's survey data shows a significant 9% increase in the number of people who have developed and practiced a home fire escape plan over the past two years. But there is still much work to be done in preparing families in our community to survive a fire

Home fire escape planning can make the difference between life and death in a fire a typical home fire can become deadly fast. From the time the smoke alarm sounds, people may have as little as two minutes to escape, that means everyone in the household needs to snap into action immediately, which takes planning and practice.

"The Great Escape" is a fun, family-oriented program that can make a life-saving difference for ev-erybody. As we enter the third and final year of this campaign, I hope more residents participate than ever before.

"The Great Escape" fire drill will take place in Warm Springs on Wednesday, October 11 at 7:00 p.m. There are forms available at Fire & Safety if you wish to participate, we will also be visiting the elementary school so watch for your children to have the form also. If you have any questions please call Karla at 553-1634.

Draw a floor plan of your home, marking all doors and windows. Locate two escape routes from each room.
