

Employee picnic and free day at Kah-Nee-Ta was fun and relaxing

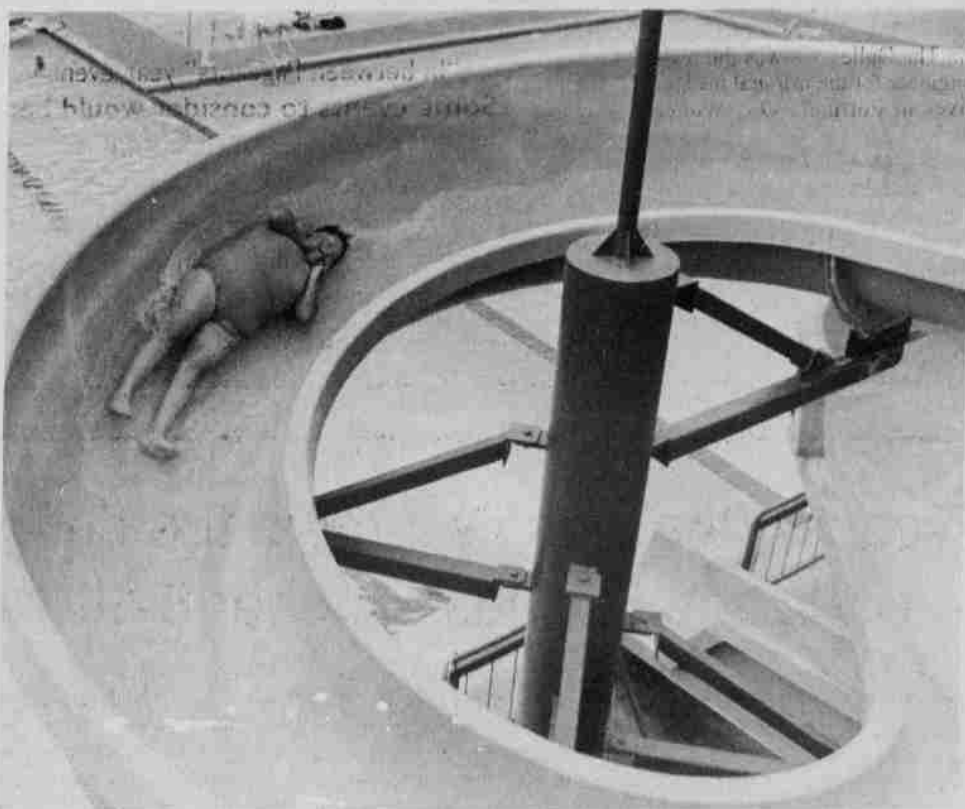

Employees were allowed to relax and swim.

"Bank Shot?" Go Karla.

Jacuzzi anyone? These ladies are relaxing to the max.

Julie George, it's not that scary.

Evening dinner was good. These guys are eating it up.

The 2000 employee appreciation picnic was held on Friday, September 15, 2000. The picnic was filled with all sorts of activities to do such as: Golf, 3-on-3 basketball, slot tournaments, putting tournament, free swimming, lunch and dinner for all employees. The appreciation day was put fourth by the Tribal Council, along with many other volunteers. It was a festivity to be enjoyed by everyone and tribal council hopes that everyone had a great time.

Miniature golf played in many ways.
