Information and tips for Veterans

Massing of the Colors

The 37th Annual Massing of the Colors and Service of Remembrance is scheduled to be held on November 12, 2000. The event will be located at the Oregon National Guard Kliever Armory, 10000 NE 33rd Drive, Portland, Oregon, and is scheduled to begin at 2:00 p.m.

All are invited to attend this memorable event. The Portland Chapter of the Military Order of the World Wars first presented the Massing of the Colors ceremony in 1964. Since that inaugural ceremony, this commemoration has continued to be a prestigious memorial event honoring all veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces, living and deceased, who served in war and peace.

Persons or organizations interested in participating in the ceremony may obtain additional information from Kathy Page, Commander of the Portland Chapter, by telephone at (503) 223-1890. She may also be reached by mail at 1414 SW 3rd Avenue, Suite 2501, Portland, Oregon 97201.

Department. In 1954, when Congress passed legislation that permitted Korean War veterans to receive and wear foreign medals awarded for service in Korea, most U.S. service members eligible for the Republic of Korea War Service Medal, had returned home. Most U.S. veterans were unaware that such a medal had even been offered or that, if eligible, they were able to receive and wear the medal. The State Department began distributing the decorations it was holding, but not the ROKWSM.

Why the medal was not distributed in 1954 is unclear. The medal was mostly forgotten until 1995, at a ceremony dedicating the Korean War Memorial in Washington, D.C., aging soldiers wore their uniforms decorated with medals and ribbons. And on the uniforms of the French, Belgians, Canadians and Greeks, American veterans noted an unfamiliar decoration, the ROKWSM.

Veterans began searching for information. Eventually armed with documents from the archives and the 1954 legislation that authorized Korean War veterans to wear foreign decorations earned in the war, veterans asked Congress, the military and President Clinton to officially recognize the Republic of Korea War Service Medal. In 1998, the government of the ROK renewed its original offer of the War Service Medal to the U.S. military personnel. And finally on August 20, 1999, the Defense Department approved the acceptance and wearing of the medal.

In the letter to Defense Secretary William S. Cohen dated May 13, 2000, Republic of Korea Defense Minister Seong Tae Cho formally announced that his government would provide the medal to eligible U.S. veterans of that conflict, or to their surviving next of kin. Cho wrote, "On the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of the Korean War, the Republic of Korea government decided to issue the ROKWSM to pay tribute to the Korean War veterans for their historic endeavors to preserve freedom of the ROK and the free world."

The war began on June 25, 1950, when North Korean forces invaded ROK and continued until the armistice on July 27, 1953 that ended the fighting. In commemoration of the Korean War both the ROK and the U.S. government will be conducting fiftieth anniversary ceremonies throughout 2000-2003. The medal is being provided at no cost to veterans. The U.S. Air Force has been designated as the lead agency to receive and distribute the medals. Approximately 1.8 million Korean War U.S. veterans are eligible to receive the medal. The next of kin to eligible deceased veterans may also apply.

The ROK specifies the eligibility area, period of service and criteria. The period of service is from June 25, 1950 to July 27, 1953. Area of eligibility is within the territorial waters, landmass, or airspace over the Korean peninsula. Service must have been performed while on permanent assignment in the area of eligibility, or while on temporary duty in the area of eligibility for 30 consecutive days or 60 nonconsecutive days, or while as a crewmember of aircraft, in aerial flight over Korea participating in actual combat operations. The ROK provided medal is approved by the U.S. Government to meet the U.S. criteria for wear on the military uniform.

Information on how to request or apply for the medal can be found by contacting the Air Force Personnel Center, Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (CST) at 1-800-558-1404 or by writing to HQ ARPC/DDpprk, 550 C Street West, Suite 12, Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, 78150. Information may also be found by visiting their website at <http://www.afpc.randolph.af.mil/> awards.

would not decide if there is room tax or not. Room tax is determined by the local government, namely us...tribal members. And we need to "bust-a-move" since our Casino won't move up to Bear Springs.

A tribal tax generating $196,898 coupled with a Kah-Nee-Ta Room tax generating $151,200 would alleviate our budget by a total of $248,098. A petition signed by the quota of tribal members mandated, would delegate Tribal Council to establish a referendum (like Madras Casino referendum) to vote this in. This is very possible. Think on this until the petition comes your way.

The forgotten medal of a forgotten war

U.S. Veterans of the Korean War are now able to receive and wear a medal that was originally offered by the Republic of Korea (ROK) in 1951, but never issued to them. At the time the ROK proposed the decoration for the troops who fought in the three-year Asian war, it was forbidden by both the U.S. Constitution and Army regulations, for U.S. troops to accept foreign, service medals. The U.S. Army, which had command of the United Nations forces fighting in Korea, turned down the offer. Other countries that sent troops to the United Nations force were not bound by the same restrictions and received and wore the decoration known as the Republic of Korea War Service Medal (ROKWSM).

All foreign awards earned by U.S. veterans during the Korean War had been turned over to the State

Assistant directors training program offers career opportunity

The Assistant Directors Training Program is now accepting applications for its Class of 2001. Established in 1965, the program is a joint venture of the Directors Guild of America and the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers. Each year the program accepts approximately 10 to 25 individuals from among more than 800 applicants.

Assistant Director Trainees are paid to work and learn on the sets of various feature films, TV series and television movies. Trainee assignments during the past year included The Perfect Storm, The Flintstones in Viva Rock Vegas, Arliss, Popular, Wonder Boys, Jack and Jill, Sports Night, Thirteen Days, NYPD Blue, Galaxy Quest, Judging Amy, and The Grinch. Trainees are currently assigned to E.R., City of Angels, Malcolm in the Middle, The West Wing, Double-Take, Star Trek: Voyager, Providence, X-Files, The Practice, J.A.G., Resurrection Boulevard, Attila the Hun, Angel, Wishcraft, Crime Scene Investigation and many other productions.

While "on the set", Trainees learn administrative and organizational production skills including set operations, paperwork, and how to supervise cast and crew members. They also study the working conditions and collective bargaining agreements of more than twenty guild and unions. Upon satisfactory completion of the program, Trainees are placed on the Southern California Area Qualification List as Second Assistant Directors and become eligible for membership in the Directors Guild of America.

Among the more than 450 program graduates are numerous producers, studio executives and unit production managers as well as assistant directors. Training Program graduate John Slosser is a Unit Production Manager in the DGA, as well as Chair of the Training Plan's Board of Trustees. "The technology of producing and distributing films and television is rapidly changing. ADTP graduates are always on the forefront of that change. The ADTP is committed to providing our Trainees with the best information, experience, and techniques available."

Eligibility requirements are listed in ADTP application. Interested individuals can download applications from www.trainingplan.org or have applications mailed to them by phoning the ADTP office at 818-386-2545. Completed applications must be postmarked no later than November 13, 2000.

Need assistance in seeking photographs

To the editor,

I'm sending this letter to ask anyone for help in sending me pictures of either the reservation, Kah-nee-ta, or events that go on there. I also would like to thank all the people that took care of my girls while I was in Warm Springs.

I'm doing a speech on the 27th of this month and I need some type of visual aid. I have found the Warm Springs website but there are not a lot of pictures that I can use. Most of the pictures on there are from just of people and not really of the land. At first I e-mailed a couple of people then I started to e-mail a lot of different people that I had found on the Warm Springs e-mail directory. I've e-mailed people I don't even know.

After a couple of weeks of not really getting anything, now I'm getting a little worried because if I don't have pictures that go with my speech then my grade will drop. If I could I would just go to Warm Springs and take pictures myself but I can't find the time.

Speaking of time my kids don't have the time. How does that sound? What I mean is that my kids are burning me out watching them, because they go to school in the morning then they don't get home until about 6 and 7 o'clock in the evening. So if anyone has any pictures that I could use I will send them back. I asked the class about my topic of the Warm Springs Indian reservation and they are interested because it is someplace different then here with different cultures I do have another favor to ask of someone.

Here in Hoopa they have a dress show and my girls would like to participate in this show. I want to know if someone will make them a dress. I will pay someone. And even my son needs an outfit. I don't feel comfortable publicizing my address and phone number so if you don't have it please get it from my mom or dad (Hazel or Roy). Right now I'm hardly ever home and I am a hard person to get ahold of because I go to school and on Saturday's I go to Shalissa and Shantel's soccer games.

On Sunday's I go to Shantae's cheerleading for the football players. So please just get ahold of them.

I would like to say hi and thanks to Jeri Smith, Squirrel, my mom for taking care of my girls while I was gone for the weekend. I also would like to say thanks to my dad, Jeri and my mom for trying to bail me out.

My kids were wondering what I did to be put in jail. I just told them I don't know what I did. My kids think that jail is just for criminals so they really thought I had done something wrong. Once in a while I hear that my jail friends are asking about me. Because of them my kids think that I had fun in jail because I was telling my stories to everyone when I got out.

My kids even knew that we celebrated a birthday in there so I can see where the fun part came in all of this. Anyway, hi to them too (Sacheen, Sally, Jennifer, Snipe, Louisa, Reanna and Nicole).

One thing they said that I thought was funny was they would look at me while I was studying and start laughing, because they said that I was the only one in jail that had something to do with my time. I just hope that next time I come up I actually have the time to visit. I did visit until 4am the next morning and then slept until 11am then left. When I returned to school my friends said they were glad to see me because they thought that I wasn't coming back. I missed three days of school. My girls friends were asking there parents of they were coming back.

That weekend my girls were suppose to be in a parade but I didn't know about that. I gotta go now. I just want to say thanks to Myra Shawaway, AJ Atencio, and Madeline Queapama-Spino for responding to my e-mails. I'm sorry I didn't get to see Boss and Eve but I will see you when I come up next time. I'm glad to have visited with Ted and Mico Chase, Libby Chase, Alice and kids, Jeri Smith, Laura Switzer, Billy Joe and Wanda Berry, Dionne Thomas, my mom and dad. I'll see you all again next time I come up.

Bye Rosanna Jackson
