

First time ever True Resilience Rez Car Parade

Recipient of the "Governor's Award" was Mi-Mi Suppah.

Omar "Poopsie" Winishut placed 2nd for his entry.

Jose Calica took third place with this beauty.

"It runs" good enough to win first place for Jeremiah Johnson.

In honor of Columbus Day the Warm Springs Reservation hosted The True Resilience Rez Car Parade. The parade was held to bring the community together to have a fun day and show off their "rez" car, and enter the contest for prizes.

A total of 13 cars were entered and paraded to the Agency Longhouse in the rain. The bad weather did not dampen the spirit of the participants, they still held pride in their cars. A large turnout of audience came to watch the parade that started at the old clinic.

About 280 people were served lunch during the awards presentation at the Longhouse. Awards were given to cars based on their unique characteristics, creative use of duct tape, plastic bailing wire, hangers, etc., and owners pride in vehicle.

All entrants cars were required to start and stop on their own, no towing or jumpstarting, and all drivers were required to be 'okay'.

Based on these the judges chose these vehicles as the winners:

- 1st Place-Jeremiah Johnson
- 2nd Place-Omar Winishut
- 3rd Place-Jose Calica
- Governor's Award went to Mi-Mi Suppah

Viola Governor was present in honor of this award.

Awards given out were special things for their cars, such as-duct tape and plastic to make a new window, gloves to keep warm while driving, trash bags for their cars, oil filters, rear view mirror, etc.

"Anyone want to ride in my car?" Jeremiah asked before his exit of the event. He was the winner after all.

The day was fun and brought out a lot of smiles and laughter for the community, as it was intended to do. Columbus Day was celebrated in a very special way this year.

Hello from Pastor Rick

Jealous; resentfully envious. Suspecting unfaithfulness. Envious; bad feelings brought on by another's good fortune.

Interesting definitions of some powerful words. I have seen in the lives of the children the acting out of these two words. To fight someone who was a friend and now is an enemy because your friend has a new friend you do not like. To hit someone who said hello to your girlfriend. All they said was "hello". To be jealous, envious now let me see, were in the bible do those two words come up. Oh, yea. Cain and Abel. Genesis 4. Two brothers, one a farmer, the other a rancher. They both give an offering to God of their work. God sees the offerings and into each mans heart for the love behind the offerings. He says to Abel, "Good one". He says to Cain, "OK". Cain becomes filled with those two words above and kills his brother. God made Cain a wanderer on the earth forever living his sin. Even now for us adults you will hear the power in these two words in the envious teasing. Or the angry that only a certain family gets things.

To take the power out of these words is to put love behind them. Love turns jealousy into honor. Love turns envy into respect. Love keeps us from becoming wanderers on the earth forever living apart from God. Get ready, get set... Hug someone you love. Hug someone you dislike. No alcohol or tobacco for children. One day at a time. Buckle up for the kids and yourselves. Don't hit or beat on yourself. Pay your bills before gambling then stay home. Read the Bible for its effect on your heart. Pray to God to the point of hearing him. Honor someone. Love yourself. Like yourself. See you in church. Christian Education, 10:00 am. Worship 11:00 am. Youth night-seventh grade on up, Tuesday, 6:30 pm. Women's night Wednesday night, 6:00 pm.

Pastor Rick R. Ribeiro, Warm Springs Presbyterian Church-on the Campus.

Member sends apology

A Lil Some Say
Sitting out my time felling sorry.
The time I've wasted is my biggest regret
Spent in these places I will never forget.
I'm just sitting here thinking about the things I've done
The crying, the laughing, the hurt and the fun
Now its just me and my hard driven guilt
Behind a wall of emptiness I allowed to build.
I'm trappd in my body, just wanting to run back to my youth with it's laughten and fun.
but the ride is over no place to hide every thing is gone including my girl with reality
suddenly right in my face, I'm gansta yo. all alone stuck in this place.
Now memories long gone blast of the past.
through my gangsta days, tha pain I hold back,
through this dark room the tears that I shed
I ask myself why, where I went wrong, I guess I was weak, when I should have been

Happy Birthday
To our cousin
