Twas the night before combat

He lived all alone in a one bedroom house made of Plaster and Stone I had come down the Chimney With presents to give.

And to see just who in this home did live. I looked all about A strange sight I did see. No tinsel, No presents, Not even a tree.

No stocking by the mantle, Just boots filled with sand. On the wall hung pictures Of far distant lands.

With medals and badges, Awards of all kinds, A sober thought Came through my mind.

For this house was different, it was dark and dreary, I found the home of a soldier, Once I could see clearly.

The soldier lay sleeping, Silent, alone, Curled up on the floor in this one bedroom home.

The face was so gentle, The room in such disorder, Not how I pictured A United States Soldier.

Was this the hero Of whom I'd just read? Curled up on a Poncho, The floor for a bed?

I realized the families That I saw this night, Owed their lives to these soldiers Who were willing to fight.

Soon round the world, The children would play, And grownups would celebrate A bright Christmas Day.

They all enjoyed freedom each month of the year, Because of the soldiers, Like the one lying here.

I couldn't help wonder How many lay alone, On a cold Christmas Eve in a land far from home.

The very thought Brought a tear to my eye, I dropped to my knees And started to cry.

The soldier awakened And I heard a rough voice, "Santa don't cry, This life is my choice."

The soldier rolled over And drifted to sleep, I couldn't control it, I continued to weep.

I kept watch for hours, So silent and still And we both shivered From the cold nights chill.

I didn't want to leave On that cold, dark, night, This guardian of Honor So willing to fight.

The soldier rolled over, With a voice soft and pure, Whispered, "Carry on Santa, It's Christmas Day, All is secure."

One look at my watch, And I knew he was right. "Merry Christmas my friend, And to all a good night."

This poem was written by a Marine stationed in Okinawa Japan. The following is his request. I think it is reasonable...

Please. Would you do me the kind favor of sending this to as many People as you can? Christmas will be coming soon and some credit is due to our U.S. service men and women for being able to celebrate these festivities.

Let's try in this small way to pay a tiny bit of what we owe. Make people stop and think of our heroes, living and dead, who sacrificed themselves for us. Please, do your small part to plant this small seed.

Information and tips for Veterans

VA Awards 65 Homeless Assistance Grants

Sixty-five public and private nonprofit groups will receive nearly $11.5 million in grants from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to develop or expand programs to assist homeless veterans.

"Getting homeless veterans off the streets, addressing their health care needs, and getting them back to gainful employment is one of VA's top priorities," said Acting Secretary of Veterans Affairs Hershel Gober. "We've always known through, that we cannot do the job alone. These grants will mean that more homeless veterans will get the help they need. Furthermore, we are doing everything we can to get these funds distributed to keep homeless veterans from facing another winter on the streets."

The Homeless Providers Grant and Per Diem Program allows VA to assist public and private non-profit agencies to establish and operate new supportive housing and service centers for homeless veterans. Grants may also be used to purchase vans to conduct outreach or provide transportation for homeless veterans. Since the first year of funding in 1994, VA has awarded 243 grants to nonprofit organizations. Total funding for grants has exceeded $50 million.

"Currently more than 2,000 veterans sleep each night in beds already funded under VA's Homeless Providers Grant and Per Diem Program, and approximately 1,500 more beds are in the pipeline," said Gober. "This year's grants will create 995 new beds and fund 65 new vans to conduct outreach or provide transportation for homeless veterans."

While there is no true measure of the number of homeless veterans, it has been estimated that more than 200,000 veterans may be homeless on any given night. About one-third of the adult homeless male population and nearly one-quarter of all homeless adults have served their country in the armed services.

In addition to the Grant and Per Diem Program, VA is the only federal agency that provides substantial hands-on assistance directly to homeless persons. In 2000, the VA dedicated nearly $150 million to its specialized homeless programs, including health care, rehabilitation, outreach and counseling programs for homeless veterans.

VA will also reach its 2000 goal of supporting 200 stand downs across the country. These 1-3 day safe havens for homeless veterans provide a variety of services including food, shelter clothing, and a range of community and VA-specific assistance. Stand downs also provide health screenings, referral and access to long-term treatment, and benefits counseling.

"Like many of VA's homeless programs, stand downs would not be possible without support from community and veterans service organizations. We're a team. The grant and per diem program is an integral part of that teamwork," said Gober.

"This year's grants, ranging from $12,000 to nearly $1 million, will provide up to 65 percent of the cost of acquiring or renovating facilities that will be used for housing, for service centers, or to acquire a van to transport veterans to needed services," added Gober. "As a result of the new programs we fund today, many veterans who find themselves homeless now will be able to obtain services in the community that will lead to a better life."
