Nathan participates in cross country season and enjoys it

During the fall sports events at the Jefferson County Middle School, Cameron Nathan participated on the Cross Country Team. Cameron had an outstanding season and won many medals or placed in the events he competed in.

At the Crook County Middle School Cameron placed fifth, at Sisters District meet he placed second and received a medal.

In Redmond he placed seventh and received a medal, and at JCMS he placed first. He also took seventh at Littlefoot in Bend.

Talking with Cameron he states, "I trained very hard and had a lot of fun while training for these events." He goes on to say, "I met a lot of new friends and enjoyed their company. I will continue my training and enter a few relays this summer."

Cameron especially looks forward to running in the Hood to Coast event. His teammates were students from the middle school also.

Cameron enjoyed his teammates and their company, they were William, Austin, Zack and Titus. They were encouraging when he needed their friendship.

Cameron liked his coach, Chip Sweeney, who helped to push him by giving him pep talks and running his team through the fitness trail to long distance running.

He also received encouragement from his older brother, Koosh who is a senior at the high school. He learned the right foods and beverages to eat and drink during his training. The challenges he liked the most by his brother Koosh is that he was starting to beat his brother every now and then. Especially racing uphill.

He looks forward to next year the high school because he has many competitive years yet to come.

Cameron states that his teacher, Shirley Allen's, encouragement is helpful to him.

"Have you seen the new cars coming out next year? It won't be long when $5000 will only buy a used one."

"If cigarettes keep going up in price, I'm going to quit. A quarter a pack is ridiculous."

"Also, their music drives me wild. This 'Rock Around The Clock' thing is nothing but racket."

"I'm afraid to send my kids to the movies any more. Ever since they let Clark Gable get by with saying 'damn' in 'Gone With The Wind,' it seems every movie has a 'hell' or 'damn' in it."

"Also, it won't be long until couples are sleeping in the same bed in the movies. What is this world coming to?"

"Pretty soon you won't be able to buy a good 10 cent cigar."

"I read the other day where some scientist thinks it's possible to put a man on the moon by the end of the century. They even have some fellows they call astronauts preparing for it down in Texas."

"Did you see where some baseball player just signed a contract for $75,000 a year just to play ball? It wouldn't surprise me if someday they'll be making more than the president."

"Do you suppose television will ever reach our part of the country?"

"I never thought I'd see the day all our kitchen appliances would be electric. They are even making electric typewriters now."

"It's too bad things are so tough nowadays. I see where a few married women are having to work to make ends meet."

"It won't be long before young couples are going to have to hire someone to watch their kids so they can both work."

"I'll tell you one thing. If my kid ever talks back to me, they won't be able to sit down for a week."

"Did you know the new church in town is allowing women to wear pants to their service?"

"Next thing you know is, the government will start paying us not to grow crops."

"I'm just afraid the Volkswagen car is going to open the door to a whole lot of foreign business."

"Thank goodness I won't live to see the day when the Government takes half our income in taxes. I sometimes wonder if we are electing the best people to congress."

"Why in the world would you want to send your daughter to college. Isn't she going to get married? It would be different if she could be a doctor or a lawyer."

"I just hate to see the young people smoking. As I tell my kids, 'Don't take a cigarette from ANYONE. You never know what might be in it.'"

The drive-in restaurant is convenient in nice weather, but I seriously doubt they will ever catch on."

"There is no sense going to St. Louis or Omaha anymore for a weekend. It costs nearly $15 a night to stay in a hotel."

"I don't know about you but if they raise the price of coffee to 15 cents, I'll just have to drink mine at home."

"If they think I'll pay 50 cents for a hair cut, forget it. I'll have my wife learn to cut hair."

"We won't be going out much anymore. Our baby sitter informed us she now wants 50 cents an hour. Kids think money grows on trees."

"Cars which dim their lights by sensors, automatic transmissions, and who knows what else? Pretty soon they will have electric windows."
