Warm Springs Boxing Team travels

The Warm Springs Boxing team traveled to two boxing tournaments on April 20 and 21. The first was held in Portland, and the second was staged in Burns.

The first place Warm Springs Boxing team went to Portland to participate in the "Bound For Gory" boxing show. "We went to this event on short notice," said coach Austin Smith. "We thought the Association of Building Contractors who hosted this event and the construction tradesman who helped make it possible did a great job."

Warm Springs boxers participated in two of the eight fights with Austin Smith Jr. competing at 132 pounds and Allen Mitchell at Super Heavyweight.

Smith boxed Jose Sinneros from Rochester Boxing Club. It was a good three rounder, with both boxers doing well. They made the crowd come alive with every minute of action and it was Smith who came away with the victory and top prize.

Mitchell boxed later in the evening against a seasoned fighter named Tory Williams of the Grand Avenue Boxing Club in Portland. Although Mitchell didn't win his amateur debut, he did make a friend. The experience he gained in this bout will help to shape his character in the sport of boxing.

Warm Springs traveled to Burns for "The Showdown in the High Desert" at Old Camp Casino. The local team entered five boxers in this event, winning two fights and suffering three defeats.

Eight-year-old Leonard American Horse was uncontested at 65 pounds.

Nine-year-old Leander Smith boxed in the 65-pound class against Julio Sales of Boise, Idaho. Smith lost a one-point decision in what proved to be an entertaining match for spectators.

Jasper Smith at 85 pounds faced an older opponent, so he had to use his boxing skills to stay close. It was a tough match with both boxers well sharpened and game. They each put their heart and soul into the match.

Johnny Smith gave up two years, but had experience on his side. He out-boxed Tyrell Watkins of the Burns Boxing club to win three rounds of a great event.

Austin Smith Jr. lost a close one that maybe he thought was extra boxing for him. "I don't know because each match is always different, so erase and start over," said coach Smith.

Louis Smith had perhaps the best bout of the evening for Warm Springs. He boxed a few pounds over his weight class to give the fans a great show. Smith went with a well thought out body attack and stopped his man in the second round. "He knows how much the body shots count," said coach Smith.

The boxers and coach Smith thanked the people for your silent support and recreational supplies. Coach Smith also would also praised the Tribal Council for their donation of the passenger van.
