

Collage of Culture 2001

High Desert Dance Arts performed ballet, tap, jazz, and breakdancing.

Flutist, guitarist performed all day.

Colwash dance group performed Native American Dancing.

Families gathered together for craftmaking. These are wooden flower boxes that were filled with soil and flowers.

Indian taco being garnished by Starla Green.

Hispanic dancers from Jefferson County Middle School dance group.

Hispanic Dancers performed traditional dances.

The Annual Collage of Culture was held Saturday, May 19, 2001.

The Collage of culture celebrates spring in Jefferson County. The event shares and displays three primary cultures, Anglo, Native American and Hispanic. The event takes place in Friendship Park off Fourth Street in Madras, near Westside Elementary School.

The Collage features visual and performing art reflecting our cultures, ethnic dancing and tantalizing cuisine. Music is a centerpiece of the festival.

The Collage also features eastern Oregon's largest hot air balloon festival. The Collage is simply a wonderful, colorful celebration of the best of Jefferson County.

Spilyay Tymoo photos
by
Selena Boise