Joe R. Carillo

In memory of Joe R. Carrillo 5-10-29.

November 1979 Joe moved, with his companion Esther, to Warm Springs. Joe is best remembered for his walking; he was an employee at

Kah-Nee-Ta until he retired. He was a member of the 1910 Shaker Church. We remember Joe at home, he could make you laugh and he could speak and understand Sahaptian. He took pride in his lawn, a love for animals; he had a Shaka, LaPooch, and China. He could mechanic his car and it was shiny clean. Joe will be missed as he went to be with God on May 19, 2001

Paiute Chief Vernon Henry--Moo'hoo'oo

Paiute Chief Vernon Henry - Ese Moo'hoo'oo (Grey Owl)

Vernon Henry, Chief of the Paiute Tribe of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, passed on July 11, 2001, in Simnasho, Oregon, in a motor vehicle accident. He was 66 years old. Vernon was the son of Alex Henry and Josephine Parker; brothers included Lewis Henry, Sr., Elmer Henry, and Ed Henry, Sr.; sisters included Ethel Henry and Ellen Henry Johnson; all preceded him in death.

Vernon was born and raised in Lyle, Washington, and later resided in Tygh Valley and Wamic, Oregon. He graduated from Chemawa Boarding School and then in 1957 married Helen Ike at Bingen County Court House. He enjoyed fishing on the Columbia River and at Shears Bridge. He worked for Cody Logging, Dodge Logging and other logging companies before moving to Warm Springs. In Warm Springs, Vernon worked for the Tribal Alcohol Program until being elected to the Tribal Council in 1983. In 1987 Vernon was chosen to represent his people as Chief and continued to serve on the Tribal Council for a total of eighteen (18) years.

Vernon enjoyed assisting his daughter, Leah Henry, and granddaughter Tiffiney Henry, as they traveled throughout the Northwest playing in numerous 19 and under Boys and Girls basketball tournaments, as well as 19 and under co-ed basketball tournaments. Vernon enjoyed spending time with his children. Vernon enjoyed the outdoors and was always willing to assist his children in getting firewood. Although he did not avidly play stick game he enjoyed going to watch and participate.

Although he enjoyed many things in life he was known more as a father and grandfather, choosing to spend much of his time with his grandchildren. He found the time to be at almost all of their events, no matter where they were, and was always teasing and laughing with them. This was no sacrifice for him to be there, as he truly enjoyed making all the functions and knowing what was going on in his family's life. Vernon thought highly of education and strived to instill this ideal in his grandchildren. His ideals, sense of humor, laughter and love will truly be missed, but most importantly they can never be forgotten.

Vernon's oldest son, Roderick Henry, preceded him in death, leaving behind three daughters Leah Henry, Martha Winishut (husband Donnie Winishut) and Alexandria "Sandy" Henry (companion Randy Scott) and a son Anthony Henry (wife Dorothy Henry) all of which reside in Warm Springs, Oregon. His sixteen grandchildren left behind include Tiffiney Henry, Trevern Yazzie, Alexander Henry, Duane Henry, Heleena Henry, Donesha Winishut, Delvis George, Stephen Miller, Paul Miller, Jeremiah Miller, Charles Scott, Jerome Henry, Arianna Henry, Samantha Henry, Michele Henry, Rosalyn Henry and also, his great granddaughters, his pride and joy, Theyliah Henry (aka "The Brat") and Trisahna Henry. He also leaves behind numerous nieces and nephews. Foster son, whom he stayed with during visits to the Yakama reservation, Victor Gardee, and daughter-in-law Rachael Henry of Wellpint.

To the Paiute Chief, we thank you for touching our lives and making it a better place for us, we wish you well; we love you, and bid you a fond farewell.

Michael James Saludo

Michael James Saludo, 26, passed away July 12, 2001. He was an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes.

Mr. Saludo was born in Seattle, Wash., on Jan. 15, 1975. He lived in Seattle, and then in Warm Springs.

Mr. Saludo is survived by his wife Mallory Polk-Saludo, his daughter Neteva Lysa Rose Polk-Saludo, his mother Rose Lee Boise and father Francisco Saludo, Jr.

He is also survived by brother

Frank Saludo III; and sisters Carol Lawrence and family, Rachel Doney and family, Arnetta Saludo and family, and Terry Saludo.

He is survived by his grandmother Margo Boise. His other grandparents predeceased Mr. Saludo. They are Phillip Boise, and Elizabeth and Francisco Saludo, Sr. Mr. Saludo's uncles are Tony Boise, Phillip Boise, Davis Boise and Earl Boise. His aunts are Liz Yaw and Leah.

Growing up, Mr. Saludo attended Warm Springs Elementary, and then Jefferson County Middle School and High School.

He worked in adult and family services, as caretaker for his mother, and at the Kah-Nee-Ta Juniper Dining Room.

His hobbies were fishing, spending time with family and friends, and traveling.

Overnight was July 15, and the burial was July 16.

Moving Wall to visit Florence

In September the Vietnam Veterans of Florence will share a rare opportunity with the citizens of Florence and others who will journey to visit the National Vietnam Veterans Memorial Moving Wall display.

The Moving Wall is a replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Wall located in Washington, D.C. Since its dedication in 1982, the memorial has deeply affected the lives of thousands of people who have visited it. From these emotional experiences the concept of bringing the memorial to people who could not otherwise visit the original memorial in Washington, D. C. was devised and now is a reality.

A request to have The Moving Wall come to Florence was originally submitted four years ago and it was just recently that the city was asked if they would still be interested. A group was formed called the 'Vietnam Veterans of Florence' to more efficiently handle the planning and organizing of the wall's visit. Tim Sapp of Florence was named head of this group.

According to Sapp, he has experienced the emotions that come from a visit to the moving display. He was attending a reunion of his former military unit in Kentucky when The Moving Wall was on display in a nearby town and they decided to visit it. Sapp says he is glad to be part of bringing the wall closer to home for all those that can and want to experience the many meanings of the wall for themselves. He asks that if any unit or group would like to have private time at the memorial that they contact him. Sapp feels that offering groups a time of their own is important.

The weeklong appearance of the display will be held September 4th through the 10th at Miller Park in Florence, only 3 blocks off Highway 101. There will be no charge for visiting the memorial or for parking.

The financial cost in bringing the wall to Florence is significant and donations are being accepted. Florence will be the sole Oregon location for the traveling display this year.

The Vietnam Veterans of Florence are proud to bring The Moving Wall to the Oregon central coast. It is their hope that when one visits the memorial they will not only think of those whose names are listed, but also of all those who served in the 15-year war.

For more information about the memorial's visit to Florence and volunteering, making a donation or wanting to schedule private time at the wall for a group, call Tim Sapp in Florence at 541-997-1200 or contact him by e-mail at tim@trhunter.com.

Sons and Daughters in Touch "They Were Our Fathers..."

Plans are in progress to take members to The largest trip of its kind will give members a chance to retrace their father's final footsteps.

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 26, 2001 - Sons and Daughters In Touch, the national organization representing children of American servicemen lost during the Vietnam War, will take its members to Vietnam to retrace the final footsteps their fathers left a generation ago. Scheduled for the spring of 2003, the trip will include visits to many of the sites that played significant roles in the war: Ho Chi Minh City (Saigon), Bien Hoa, Hue, Da Nang, China Beach, the DMZ, the central highlands, and Hanoi. "I can't think of a better time for SDIT and its members to visit Vietnam. For ten years, this organization has helped its members confront their loss and realize that they are not alone in that struggle. Now we have the chance to help them touch, see and feel the land where their fathers died," said SDIT founder Tony Cordero, son of Air Force Major Bill Cordero (KIA 1965).

SDIT anticipates that as many as 200 of its members will make the two-week trip, making it the largest visit of its kind to the country where America fought its longest war.

Interested veterans and other family members will only add to the size of the travel group. With so many SDIT members hoping to visit the actual site where their fathers died, travel planners will arrange for smaller groups to make side visits to these remote battlefields and villages. To offset many of the planning costs, and to make the trip affordable for its members, SDIT will launch a fund-raising campaign to generate up to $500,000. The group will look to supportive veterans organizations, corporations, and other individuals for assistance in reaching this goal.

"Two years ago, I was able to visit Vietnam and to make personal contact with my dad. I couldn't have done it without the help of some very supportive Vietnam veterans," said Michelle Baugh, of Centralia, IL, daughter of Army SP4 Richard Githens (KIA 1968). With the tremendous support of America's veterans, SDIT has hosted four major Fathers' Day ceremonies at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, DC. For many of the attendees, those events provided the initial opportunity to see their father's name inscribed on the memorial and to meet others who lost their father during the Vietnam War. Interested participants and contributors can complete information forms at the SDIT web site: www.sditi.org or can call 800-984-9994. Sons and Daughters In Touch is a fully accredited non-profit 501(c) 3 organization that has been meeting the needs of its members since 1990. SDIT members are the children of men who served at nearly every rank — in every branch — of the US military. Today, these children are testaments to the sacrifice of their fathers. They have become parents, priests, professional athletes, business-professionals and more.

Michael Saludo

When you're lonely
I wish you love
When you're down
When you're troubled
We wish you peace
When things are complicated
We wish you simple beauty
When things are chaotic
We wish you inner silence
When things look empty - lost
We all wish you hope - love.

Sincerely,
Sisters' love
Friends - family.
